

Awakening the 4 Pillars_Quantum Healing_Part 2 of 4

Well you made it, congratulations. You've gotten here in spite of our technical difficulties with the links. So our sincere apologies and if you're watching the replay, I love you. I'm so sorry. Every once in a while, something goes haywire and we had some confusion and the wrong link sent. So I apologize profusely and you're going to have an amazing, amazing experience tonight regardless of the challenges that we've been going through.

Alright so tonight, we're going to be working with abundance and hi to all of you who have been popping on. I'm so happy to see you here. And we'll be doing soul contract clearings, and we'll be doing DNA clearings, and I'm really interested in what you want. So the normal things that I'm going to clear with wealth would be like being able to bring in money. Some of you are just blocked in bringing money in, so we'll clear that. Being able to really sustain it, so some of you bring it in and you have difficulty holding on to it. And then some of you really have a hard time amplifying it or growing it. So we're going to do all of those clearings. I also will be putting in -- the one that was so important to me which was clearing all the slave and servitude pictures, so we'll be clearing that. And then I want to hear from you, I want to know what you really would like to clear. Some people are always blessed to have somebody else take care of them, but they'd love to have a breakthrough and be able to take care of themselves. And yes, so let me know. I'll be watching the little ticker here, the text box and I'll be keeping an eye on things.

So welcome to the You Wealth and Julie Renee Quantum Clearing Program. I'd like you to feel really loved and cherished in this event. We're up to some really exciting and good things tonight and I want to really help all of you to have your breakthrough. And if you haven't heard about our wealth program, the last day to register for that is Thursday morning, 8 am Pacific Time, and then the class entirely loses. So if that was something that you might be thinking about, you can send a question to support@julierenee.com, we'll send you a link but it is on the Website at this point. So if you were interested in that Accelerate Wealth 21-Day Program, Thursday morning is the last opportunity to jump into that class.

Alright, well welcome everybody and I'm seeing some ancestral and personal money blocks. Sure, we'll definitely be doing that. "Clearing slave," yes we'll be definitely doing that. "Unworthiness," that's a really good one. Thank you, thank you, thank you. "Manifest abundance," yay Chris. Alright, so we'll do unworthiness, maybe self-confidence. Yes, being able to trust yourself. I know we did some of that clearing but we'll do it in relationship to money this week. So just get yourselves centered and ready to roll. And for those of you who are already part of the program and have been pumping away, we're going to start with the first clearing which is always the wealth clearing of being able to bring in money and then sustain it and then amplify it. So that's the one we're going to do first. And I know what I also think we should probably do -- oh, we got a really long one here. Let's see. Ooh, it jumped away. But I now had a little training and I understand that I can move the side bar so I could see the one right here. Here we go. Someone's now bringing in money, okay that's good. So we'll get to that. "Need others pressing upon me." Okay, I understand that one. "Receiving a job, making $20 an hour." Well hopefully we'll get you even higher than $20 an hour. Okay, so pump, pump, pump. Pump, pump, pump.

I've got a couple comments. Some of you have sent to support@julierenee.com saying, show your hand more and I will do that a little more, so you'll see my hand moving a little more. This live stream is so much fun isn't it, that we get to see each other or you get to see me. So anyway, here we go. And you know, I want you to be thinking about as we're doing these clearing, what it is that you're really up to in your life, and why it is that you would love to be having more abundance, and in what areas? Because we look at abundance and we first initially think about wealth and honestly, that's a place you need to clear. You need to get it to the place where you can live the lifestyle you want to live. And like I said, I had been working on that like crazy the last couple of years because for me, I was really living a life, a blessed life and in a 6-figure income. And I had gone for many years, eight years actually in 6-figures. So I was always between 135 and 193 and I could never get it past 193 no matter what I did. That sounds pretty good, doesn't it? It sounds like, wow, I'd be happy with that. But I have a staff, so it doesn't leave much left for me. I was just like traveling all over the place and spending all my money, and it wasn't what I wanted.

So I did my wealth program, my Accelerate Wealth. I literally did all of my homework. I did it three times through last year in -- excuse me, 2013. It's already 2015. So in 2013 I did Accelerate Wealth three times through, 21 days of meditation and action. And what I did was I really got my field rocking and rolling and it turned into like this wealth magnet, so my field was really set for wealth. And then what happened, you probably wouldn't think was a good indication that I was going to have a lot of wealth come in, but I started having these inclinations. I'm like, oh should I get the books published or should I meet with Jack Canfield, or should I go to the National Publicity Summit. And every time I had this intuitive feeling like, ooh this is important to grow a global business, I would pray about it and I would wake up the next morning and I would get a yes.

And because I've always, always, always paid my bills on time, I had a lot of credit. So I was able to get myself 200,000 in debt and do every single thing I needed to do without bringing funders in. And you know a lot of startup companies say to bring people in, they bring grant money and funding from other areas, and I was able to fund myself. And what was so cool is I was just really in this -- I don't know, it's not do or die. It's not that but it's like this is working period and I got in that mindset of this is working. And then really the dialogue of communicating with the Divine so what I would do is -- and I made God my business partner many years ago --- is that if I had a decision to make, certainly I would check in with myself, I would listen. You know sometimes we're a little gullible and I think we should clear gullible too. Because sometimes, what I had done in the past -- gullible, there we go. Sometimes in the past, I would listen with my head to something somebody was selling me. Like, oh my God, yes I want to be a big money speaker, yes I really want to -- whatever. And I would go with what my said and I would say, well they don't energetically really feel me like they match me but they're saying what I want to hear. And so I would register for their programs and I wouldn't end up with a great result.

So what I changed was I did clear the ability to discern and also got rid of all the gullibility and that made a big difference. But also, all of my decisions now are made by feeling into them, praying about them, and waiting a day. And that seems to be a really good system, I haven't made a mistake since, all of my investments have paid off really well, and the company is rock solid. What was so delightful is, within a matter of like six weeks, all of that dead-head disappeared and a lot of money, I don't want to say the numbers but a lot of money came in enough for me to buy a beautiful palace which I'll be moving into in February, February 27th, so I'll be making my move. And we all have our goals and I kept thinking I'm not in alignment. I feel like I'm a queen on the planet or a goddess on the planet and I need to be living in a home that really supports that vision. And this kind of like absolute, I know I belong in a beautiful, spacious home where I can have my student's coming in, maybe you'll come and see me in my new home and maybe you'll be one of my emergent students, and I wanted to create a space that would be so joyous, like the A+ experience and so that's what I'm up to. And those big breaks come from both the clearings, so some of you or I believe maybe all of you have gotten the 7-day free wealth jumpstart. If you haven't, we'll be happy to make that available on the Facebook page so you could sign up for that 7-day. That's a mini version of the 21-day. And so if you're thinking about the 21-day, just don't think about it, just jump in. But if you want a little sample of it, try the 7-day wealth jumpstart. And then the clearings, we're doing five weeks of wealth clearing. So tonight we'll do one week for you. We'll try and hit a lot of hot spots and then if you want to jump in to the wealth program, fantastic. And if you're not ready quite yet, it will come around again sometime this year. As a matter of fact I think there's another one scheduled in March.

Okay, so let's see where we're at. Is everybody pumping? Okay, "clearing fraudsters." Oh, that's a really good one, fraud. We'll put that one in with gullible. Okay so on this project, we're about 80% clear so just a little more pumping, a little more enthusiasm from all of you and I'll pump away and focus, focus, focus. And I'm so anxious to hear how your week was. You know we're in a big growth phase here at 100% Healthy. We don't have a name right now; it used to be Miraculous Living and I think we're in this huge growth period. What that means is that we brought a whole bunch of new staff and so what I really acknowledge, our new team member Liza, who's helping run Google Hangouts. And of course we always want it to be just perfect and technology is never perfect is it and brining new people on, it's always like there's going to be little hiccups. So I apologize for the late notice again but next week, we're going to do so much better. So put your mind and heart at ease and we really love you and we really want you to get this information. I love you and I want you to get this information. So just be relaxed and know that it's all coming to you in divine order.

Oh, thank you everybody. The congratulations are coming out. I know, I'm so excited. So what was really fun – you know, we do have openings for interns from time to time and Tom Brody might be on this call, I'm not sure. Tom was my intern for six months and he would actually commence for me here in my home just north of San Francisco. And he graduated; he had been off of work ill for three years and went through the VIP Program and then was coming in once a week doing interning for me and has gone back to work for Tesla and I thought, oh my God, I could just see myself in a cherry red Tesla. So he's been taking pictures and sending me a new mockup for the car. So maybe that will come next, who knows? You'll never know. I bet you guys have some pretty fun mockups and desires because you might not know what the word mockup means. A mockup is a spiritual intention that you claim to be true even if it isn't yet experienced. So you say this is a reality even if it isn't yet there. So the mockups have been incredibly powerful for me and I've been able to manifest a lot of my mockups.

Alright, we were at 100% clear on being able to bring in money, sustain it, and then grow it. So we'll go on to the next project which is unworthiness and trust, being able to trust yourself. And then we're also going to clear I think greed and jealousy. So you get hooked up not being successful with money because there might be greed from others or you, or there might be jealousy from others or from you. Let's clear all that unworthiness, ability to trust yourself with money, and then greed, and jealousy. Let's clear them next. So again, pump, pump, pump. Same thing.

Okay, let's see what's coming in here. I see a bunch of good stuff. Somebody says, the keys are moving with them. Thank you. Okay, somebody is wanting to -- fear of money, abundance and receiving, and abandonment was another one. I'll put abandonment on. You guys are such experts at this streaming, texting. [Laughs] I work all day that I don't get to do that and you get to listen to programs, so that's very wonderful. You're really good. Yes, so if you're just popping in, I'm seeing the list has come up but we're still way short of last week's numbers and that's our fault and I'm so, so sorry but everybody will get the replay out really fast, I promise. So there won't be a big delay on the replay. And if you're listening to the replay, understand this is the quantum field and you're getting the clearings as we're doing them. So do not worry, let your heart be at peace and we'll do better next week.

I saw something here. "Receiving as a woman...." Okay, that's a great one. I bet there's a bunch of women on the call. Yes, blocks to being able to be powerful beyond measure. That's a tough one because what we get as women is that we need to be subservient to the men around us so that they'll provide and protect for us. So it's a confusing time for a lot of women where their bodies are telling them one thing and their spirit is like, no, no, no, I want to soar and it's at the age of androgyny so we can. But the old programs in the physical body re saying, keep your head down, be subservient, don't make more than your man - like that kind of a thing, so we'll clear that. There's a question on pumping but it's kind of -- oh okay. Yes, there's all kinds of questions that aren't related to wealth. Somebody was asking can I pump for clearing problems with sleep. Yes, you can. I still find the meditations really helpful. There's one really great meditation on my Q5 App called Quantum Sleep and it just sets you in five minutes just into this deep sleep place where your body is all cleared out, your spirit is all cleared out and you're ready to go into deep sleep.

"Financial power." Yes, you know I get it for men and women. So I see a man asking for this too, financial power. I'll put that on the list. And the affirmation, I am powerful beyond measure, I am powerful beyond measure. I like this when I'm running, Everyday in every way, I'm getting better and better. Yes! Every day in every way, I'm getting better and better. Every day in every way, I'm getting wealthier and wealthier. Every day in every way I'm getting more and more powerful. Every day in every way lions, and tigers, and bears oh my! I did this for my girlfriend Barbara who's an actress and she just had so much fun with it. She thought it was like being in the Wizard of Oz. You know you got to be kind of playful when you're working on the clearings, especially around wealth and family stuff. Just be silly and let it go. There's so much emotion and charge sometimes when you're kind of struggling and life doesn't match up with what you think it should be like. So I want you to stay in good humor as we work on these projects. "Listening to higher wisdom." That's a good one too. "Generating money effortlessly." I like that.

Okay, let's see here how are we. We're about 80% through. Of course we checked in with you, at 80% through that's where we were the last time we checked on the other one. So unworthiness, self-trust, all those things that we were thinking would be jealousy and greed; just getting rid of all that stuff is good. It's funny because you might not have any part of you that has a relationship to greed and yet maybe a family member, like a father, or an uncle, or a grandpa or someone as like really that big DNA for greed and they may not have been particularly wealthy but the way they handled money was really unpleasant. Well, you get some of that in your space, if you got a family member who has that challenge. So that's one of the things that we defiantly want to clear. And then you come across as really when you don't have that greed thing going, you really do come across straight, you come across honest. And the thing with jealousy, it's not like something you choose and I understand that. I have worked with a lot of people, especially women who seem to have a little more and this is stuff that's like soul contracts and it's very unpleasant. You don't like being jealous if you have that problem and you certainly don't enjoy having other people -- like I attended a new thought spiritual organization and a number of women came up to me and told me they were jealous and I literally had to leave. I just couldn't keep attending even though they had great music and it was a nice community. It was just not for me. I don't want to be around people that are running jealousy when I'm going to celebrate the Divine and the Divine in me. So I understand the situation for you and we're just going to clear it all the way.

Let's see here. Yes, we've caught on the victim and enabler. I think we've got that but we'll put that in too, victim and enabler. "Gullible and fraud," we'll do that. That will be the next one we do. "Self-sabotage," ooh I like that one. Let's put that in there. This is going to be an amazing breakthrough class. Okay, I feel like we're done. Yes, we've got 100%. So we're going on to gullible fraud, victim enabler and let's put self-sabotage in there. And then the next one we'll be moving on to is bringing in money in effortless ease, grace and ease. We'll do that. So this one is the gullible, fraud, victim enabler, self-sabotage, and let's put abandonment in that one too. And then this one is number three, effortless ease and power, financial power for women and women. But this is the one, gullible, fraud, victim enabler, self-sabotage, and abandonment. Limitations, limitations vows, oh yes. Taken advantage of, yes that's what we're doing right now. Gullible, and fraud, financial independence.

You know the very fact that you're in this class, I won't say who's name it was and you're saying please clear it all for me, you are getting it all cleared and just keep your hand pumping, which my hand just keeps going. So keep your hand pumping so you can help and you can feel like you're helping others too, which is what we want to do. We want to feel like this is a collaborative experience. And it goes faster when you guys help, so that's amazing. I love it. We got some power house that's out there pumping. I see a few more of you have joined. Welcome and we will be getting you the live stream really quickly. Our apologies if you had difficulty connecting and we'll do better next week.

So when I first started teaching about abundance, I started with the Mantra that's almost the Mantra of beach bodies is, "Decide, commit, take action, and succeed." They do decide, commit, and succeed. But honestly, you have to take action too. So what I would like to talk to you for a few minutes while we're clearing this is what that really means to make a decision, to decide that you are going to have a breakthrough. Like I had a girlfriend tell me because I had decided in June I was buying a house in 2014 and that was it. And understand that in June, July, I was 200,000 on debt and I had a friend say, that's not realistic. And I was like, oh no, watch me. So the decision was made and I know some of you have this. When somebody says, oh you can't do this, you'll move heaven and earth, don't you? I did. I was like, she doesn't know me. I can do this. And I did move heaven and earth.

So that's part of it is you make the decision in your head and I made the decision years ago that that's what I wanted in a home. So I knew that I wanted something really wonderful, around 3,000 square feet on acreage in the country. I wanted something that I would be so proud of that would be kind of a show place, but also a beautiful place where I could do indoor/outdoor living. So I had all these ideas about what I really wanted but that was my decision, but when the passion -- so the decide, commit, the commit is the passion and honestly, until you get passion involved in the intention or the mockup, it really doesn't go anywhere. You have to have the passion, you have to have the fire. You have to be on fire saying if not now, when? It has to be now. And understand that when it has to be now, it starts really happening. Like you're calling forth the helpers from the Divine to help you. You're using your own magnetic power and will to help you create this change; so that's commit. Commit is bringing the heart energy and bringing the will in, bringing the emotion, the feelings of knowing that you're going to feel so great in whatever it is. If it's a home, or the car, or being able to take the kids on a vacation, maybe it's a whole new wardrobe of designer clothes. I bought my first Prada shoes about a month ago and it was kind of a goal of mine to have a whole outfit so at some point, you'll be seeing me in a Prada outfit just for the fun of it, because I can. So you've got to bring both the decision and the commitment to the process of manifesting. Decide, commit, take action. And at first nothing happens if you're just sitting around and meditating on bringing in money, so you want to actually take action.

Now all of you who are in this program have received the three wealth meditations in the Quantum Mind Four Pillars. So please, please, please, use those meditations. Those are very, very powerful meditations. Use them for many days in a row. The wealth program is 21 days in a row. I recommend people do that three times or four times through in one year, because you're going to be so different and things are going to be so shifted. Understand that when you start with an intention to bring in wealth, you start at a certain level and it might be that you haven't been bringing in wealth and you need to get the momentum going. So wealth might be having somebody buy you a cup of coffee or having somebody bring you flowers, where you make an intention and then you see something little happens. And a lot of times, these people make the mistake and they go for, oh I'm going to bring in 100,000 or I'm going to bring in a million dollars. But if it's not believable, if you're only making 10,000 or you're making no money, going for 100,000 might be too big of a leap for your physical and energetic body to comprehend that it can be done. So let's go ahead and keep it like 10 to 50% when you're doing an intention or mockup. So that's just a really good tip; so decide, commit, take action. You're taking action so you're doing outer world things, getting your application out.

And one lady did the 7-day free wealth jumpstart from You Wealth and I heard from her, a few days into the 7-day jumpstart, she had not worked in 10 years and she got her first job offer and it was like three days in and she goes, well this meditation stuff really, really works. So taking action and you people got to know that you are out there, you want that job. You've got to be out there. Of course I was out looking at houses during the holidays, driving hundreds of miles to go look for my dream house and that action is really important. You have to take action.

Okay and then succeed. And the one thing that we always want to do is when we have started to succeed, we want to actually acknowledge the shifts and not be impatient with ourselves if it's part of the picture and it's growing. So you want to celebrate what you've succeeded in and then you create even larger pictures. And the cool thing is when you are truth, when you are wealth manifesting, when you are bringing in such an incredible picture of wealth, then succeeding is a celebration for everybody. I know I posted a picture on Facebook on my personal page two days ago, I was going down to see my house, I was doing the inspections. And I had like -- I don't know, I think I counted like 98 likes and 55 comments. I mean people are so happy when you have your breakthroughs. People love you. They want you to have your breakthrough. One of the things that was an eye-opener for me 20 years ago was I didn't realize that people wanted me to have my breakthroughs. So this is something that's so important to get is when you succeed, share it and share the love and share the joy and be willing to share with people. You know like maybe get a house, maybe you're going to have a house warming and people are going to be able to share in your happiness. But also maybe you share some of your secrets, how did you get there, how did you make that transformation, because if you mentor people in what you've accomplished, then you continue to tell the universe that you're worthy of higher and higher experiences of wealth and abundance.

We're at 98% clear on this one so we're almost there; just a few more, maybe another minute. Yes, that's an interesting one, the ability to be passionate or muster up passion. So that would be probably demonic curses. I wrote that down on the list. Yes, that's what we're doing all night, clear curses around wealth. Every single clearing we do is clearing curses. We'll go through the list again so that it would be helpful for some of you who aren't familiar with how I work. So we start with demonic curses, and then soul contracts, soul contracts of others that affect you negatively, demonic curses. And then it's the field of perception, group mind, group mind virus, black magic, curses from people, and traumatic episodes from past lives. And then we go into the emotional field, so programs in the emotional field that don't allow you to move forward and then DNA; so a lot of stuff as we're doing these clearings.

Oh okay, yes I think that's the same. Somebody said inability to have passion or muster passion and someone said, the inability to commit. And commit is I'm whole heartedly convinced that this is the time for me to have my new job, or to run a marathon. You're doing a great job. I hope you guys will re-listen to this if it was helpful. It will be up all week. It will actually be up permanently, so if you want to review this, you can go back in and listen again. Okay, that's clear. We're at 100%. Yay! [Singing] Celebrate good times, come on! [Laughs] Okay, so we cleared gullible, fraud, abandonment, enabler victim, and self-sabotage. We're going to effortless ease and we're going to financial empowerment, so power for both men and women. And we'll also clear any inability or blocks to connecting in with divine wisdom and divine guidance. That's our next one.

Yes, so we did decide, commit, take action, succeed. Focus and follow through is another key to wealth manifestation and as you know, if you can't get focused, nothing happens. If you're a floater or if you're sitting in pea soup, nothing big is going to happen. You have to really focus in. This is my goal, this is what I'm up to, this is what I'm looking to accomplish. So focus and then following through. For example, we've been working on getting me on a summit every week and that's a real goal for me in that I'm looking to reach 5 million mimes. And I think the global tele-summits are an incredible way to reach lots and lots of people. And so focus and follow through, I'm getting requests from different summits, they want unique and original programs, especially You Wealth. You guys are going to be so excited about the program we're coming to March 3rd, they've got me booked and it's completely new; never done it before. You'll be seeing it soon I'm sure because Sonya's on it. And a follow-through for me is I have to create all the content and all the copy and I want this, so I'm working late into the evenings and early mornings and every minute I have during the day to really get everything done. Of course I have a team too but all of the original ideas have to come out of me, so that's all I follow-through. And if I didn't follow-through -- a couple of dear clients who have been on the summits and they don't follow through, so they sell very little and the summits don't ask them back.

So for me, it's really, really important to be really clear on what you want and then if you say I want that, you need to bring your full intention and your full attention to the project, so focus and follow-through. And you can use this quantum pump to help clear focus and follow-through. As a matter of fact we do have inability for passion and commitment, so why don't we put focus and follow-through on that list. I think that would be great. And here's another thing, it doesn't always come easy. Like I really wanted to create this house this year and I took a business loan last year because I kept listening to Divine guidance and it was, you need to spend this, you need to put money here, you need to invest here and I did everything intuitively that I heard to do. The first mortgage people I talked to sort of laughed at me. I talked to people -- I don't know, first of November and they said, oh you don't really qualify for a house. So then I listened to divine guidance and I got that I would have to go through five mortgage brokers before I would actually get to the one that was going to have no problems with my scenario. And in the meantime, I continue to just work like crazy and really focus on the goals. So get on as many summits and do as much work as I can possibly do and be just open for the universe to pour in wealth however it could so that I could manifest this dream. And you know it's a funny thing because I feel really kind of selfless in the dream in that I'm looking at the house for inspections and I'm thinking, well how are the students going to like this. So there's a hot tub, and there's walking areas, and there's three acres, and oh we can put big tables and chair swings and things. It was really like it was to me, it's part of my vision. It's part of the manifesting the whole life that I'm looking at. It's like it was really important to me.

So I went through the rigmarole of applying and getting all that paper work in to five mortgage people and sure enough, I swear to you, truth it was the fifth mortgage broker that was like, "Yes, we can fund you." And so I have a beautiful, beautiful house with a big jumbo mortgage and I will have no problem supporting that. And it's a really great loan I got and I mocked it up, I've seen it in my mind's eye, it was going to get the same interest rate as somebody who was working a 9 to 5 job, making a good income. And that's exactly what I created and manifested, and you can do that too. It's not just because I have this magic power, it's because of the focus and the follow-through and the determination and really just deciding this is it, this is my time. This is my time to manifest; this is my time to shine.

Alright my dears and hi Nina, I'm sorry that you're having difficulties with the technology. I'm assuming that there are a number of people having difficulties. We have a much smaller class this week, so I'm really looking forward to getting it all together and in the meantime, it's just in Divine order. Everything is happening beautifully. So, let's see here. Yes, we're at 100% on power for men and women, being able to tap in your higher guidance and your higher wisdom and then effortless ease or manifesting in grace and ease. So the next clearing that we're going to do is lacking or the inability to have passion and commitment, focus and follow-through. Why don't we start that now and then we probably will have time for another one? So we probably can get this one and another one done. Thank you everybody for the congratulations. Thank you! Yes.

That's another good one. It's different because you bring it in and then all of a sudden you've reached your capacity and you stop, lose it all, and then you bring it in. I've seen that one with clients of mine and students, stop and start money. That will be in the last one. Cool Amy, I'm so happy, she close to 10 pounds lighter. Yay! Oh, it's wonderful. You know what I think we didn't do, I don't think we cleared the slave pictures. Why don't we get that on the list? That was so important to me; I'll bet it's important to some of you too, slave and servitude pictures. It's good I cleared it from my DNA a few years back maybe 6-7 years ago but then I learned how to clear it with the soul contracts, demonic curses. [Buzzing noise] I don't know why that's happening. There we go. I'll bet you didn't hear that, I don't know if you did. Buzzzz. It was buried under my computer and my books.

So I was talking about servitude and I cleared it from DNA and it improved things. But it didn't clear it up. And when I cleared it from soul contracts, demonic curses, past lives, group mind, group mind virus, and then it wasn't really in the emotional program so much. That was one of those game changers for me, really big. Then the other thing is the unlimited wealth and I noticed that I'll clear it up to like multi-billions or something, and then it will seem to come down and I'll have to clear it again. And I think what that's about is group mind; that group mind will bring some of that back in and then you have to clear it. And so you know like, uh oh, it's not safe for women to be powerful and wealthy. And ladies I want you all to be powerful and wealthy, and I want you to just join me on the journey and it is safe, it's completely safe.

You know I have wonderful clients, a couple of them, women close to 70 who are very wealthy, and they pretend that they aren't, and they dress really common, and they drive an old car. And one of them owns, it's crazy she owns a hundred properties in San Francisco and she owns them free and clear, she only owes mortgages on three of the hundred properties. And I think that there must have been something at some point where women weren't allowed to stand in the power and be seen as feminine and strong, that it was safe to have that kind of wealth but ladies, we're in the age of androgyny. This is the time. We have the right and the ability, and as long as we do it in grace and ease and beautifully and there's no bragging, there's just the joy and the celebration of the abundance of the universe. And understand that you are meant to live in the Garden of Eden. You are meant to live in paradise, each and every one of you, men and women. We are meant to live in our divine abundant lives. And I am so excited to be sharing this moment with you because this is the moment of change and the moment of breakthrough. And I know so many of you are lighting up and feeling the empowerment and the strength of the shifts. And it's going to be a good week and a good month and a good year. It's going to be amazing. And for some of you who are getting the big shifts, and are ready to really go for it in your wealth, please do join us in the wealth class. I think that you're going to find it to be incredible.

Ok, that's 100% clear. So the passion, the commitment, the focus, the follow thru we're moving to the start and stop money, slave and servitude pictures, let's go ahead and clear there. Let's see how fast we can do this maybe we can do one more. And I wanted to do one more. I want to get you higher levels of manifestations, so I'm thinking about like clearing so that you can make more than a million dollars. More than a million? We'll clear it more than a billion, but understand just like me I've been continuing to clear out group minds so you have to kind of make the levels. So I made my first year this year was 7-figure for the first time, and I have to keep clearing as I'm going so that the manifestation can happen faster. And it's also like your life has to change enough to support bigger numbers. And honestly there are a whole lot of things that have to change when you go from six to seven figure or when you go from to high seven figure to eight figure. And my last fellow was a billionaire. It was very interesting to be in his field and to kind of watch how he related to things and how his field interacted with everything around them. And that's part of where I was getting some of this good information on how to shift things and how to keep leaving things. Okay well that doesn't work, okay I'm going to clear that. So as you go about your day now, you know how to do quantum pump and we've gone through, let me tell you again it's soul contract, soul contracts of others that affect you negatively, demonic curses, group mind, group mind virus, black magic, curses from people, traumatic episodes from past lives, emotions and DNA.

Normally if I were working with one person I might actually be figuring out what the numbers are, but we're in such a big group it will be billions and billions, maybe gazillions, so we're just clearing. But those are the areas that you clear so if you are in a grocery store and you're like, oh my God, I'm buying all the inexpensive canned stuff and I really want to think of myself that I'm worthy of organic food every minute of every day. Then you can clear that. You can clear all the way down the list. Just clear down the list and buy your organic food and feel happy and just add permission to take care of yourself. There's no ceiling on the abundance I bring in. Yes, I don't know if that's 15,000 a year, could be a different country. But yes, you can do that. And I see some of you want in this last mock-up which we're going to get to, so we'll remove limits to wealth and we'll go up to a billion if we get there, and we'll also remove limits to partnership. Now love, I do believe that that might be on another week, is it? Emotional freedom and self expression, yes we could get to all the love pictures in emotional freedom next week. So you might want to think of some things around emotional freedom and connection with your sweetheart, that would be something that you would like to work on in next week's clearing. So that would be cool.

Okay we're about 60% through on the stop-start slave and servitude. You know the next item that I always like to teach about is the disciplined imagination. And some of you really know what I mean with that. I know some of you think, oh my God, why are you bringing in the word discipline next to imagination? It sounds like an oxymoron, it doesn't make sense. You don't discipline your imagination. But yes you do. And what I'm telling you is so important for the breakthroughs. So if you were wanting to manifest in a way that you never have before, then disciplined imagination means that when your mind starts wandering off and think, uh oh I wonder what's going to happen there, uh oh, and starting to think about all the negative things, you want to shut that down and see the vision. I am riding the cherry red Tesla down the winding road to the village. And you stop the conversation in your head, you discipline your imagination, you stop the conversations in your head; so disciplined imagination is very, very important. It really is amazing when you get in charge of it.

Now understand that imagination and what's looping in your brain, sometimes that's spiritual parasites. So if you're having trouble shutting something off, it's kind of like what they call ruminating or obsessing on a particular thought, you probably need to shutdown a spiritual parasite, maybe an evil spirit or something who keeps putting a thought in your head. But you can get on the top of that even if you don't know how to clear spiritual parasites. And how do you do that is you, no, that is not my thought. I am loving and abundant, and I don't think that way." And you just shut it down. You shut it down. So disciplined imagination is amazing in don't let your mind wander to the negative. You don't need to think about all the possible negative scenarios. Think about all the positive scenarios. Yes you need not be realistic, I'm not a Pollyanna. But I'll tell you what, the power of the mind, what the mind believes and imagines and conceives when you really get it in your head like, I think this is a possibility for me, then it will achieve that. And just like my girlfriend saying, you're being really unrealistic, maybe 2017. And I'm like, no I'm not being unrealistic, you have no idea what I've got setup for myself. And then really just staying with not group mind of what I know to be true for myself. So you stay focused on the positive. And of course you got to have the funnels; you got to have the ways that money can come to you, or the ways that things can manifest. Sometimes it's a process which I was saying, you step up and then you step up, and then you step up.

The slave and servitude pictures are cleared. We'll end with the millions and billions and the unlimited removing the glass ceiling for everyone. And why don't we just end also while we're doing this pump, why don't we do just final breathing in and out. And as you breathe in, breathe in positive energy, and as you breathe out breathe out any negativity or your concern. Breathing in and out and just feeling this kind of joy and celebration. Allowing yourself to really feel in your body that things have really shifted, that you are permanently different, that you have the skills you need to remove blocks to your unlimited abundance. You have the power and the strength and the beauty or the handsomeness, you have it all. You have everything you need to create your beautiful life because this is your picture. It's no one else's. So you're going to create something magnificent for you.

And really let's just solidify these last couple minutes of this incredible wealth clearing, really holding that space of joy and abundance, and maybe you want to close your eyes and see yourself in that vision. See yourself whether it's money or it's love, or it's a home or a car, or a job or whatever it is. Let's see you in fulfillment and start really disciplining your imagination to that, sticking with that against all odds. Some of you know I was homeless. I was homeless many years ago. I lived in the back of my car for about a year. I house sat at my friends' houses and clients' houses and it was not a good year. I was selling real estate back then and I'd been really sick, I had to pay my bills. I had decided that -- I'm from Minnesota [Inaudible 01:00:18] I'm not filing bankruptcy, so what I did was I put a mattress on the back of my car and a sleeping bag and put my things in storage in a friend's garage. Unfortunately his son was a drug addict, so he sold off half my things. It was a tough year, and I got through it, never to return to that situation ever again. I don't have any idea that I don't ever want to return to that.

And you know even when I was homeless, I wasn't like a homeless person on the street. I wore beautiful clothes, and I drove a nice car, and I sold people houses. And my clients of course never knew, but I did. I had a whole year of no home and that's a long time. Maybe some of you have had that experience of needing to just tighten your belt every way you could and it just made sense; that was the thing that I had to do. I'll tell you what, it was really bad news that year, my car was repossessed. I was waiting for a deal to close; I was four months behind on my car payments, so my moving home got repossessed. Of course the house closed like that day while I was waiting for the commission cheque, so I was able to go get it out of repo but oh my God, I've been there believe me. I don't want to go back.

Alright my dears, we have come to the end of the night and I just want you to know how much I love you and I appreciate you. I believe in your capacity to heal and you will, you will have your financial breakthroughs. That's all for now. We'll see you next week. God bless. Namaste.
