

Discovery Course with Julie Renee_Session 1 of 4_Money Blocks

I'm so happy to see you here and you guys surprised us. You all came in at the last second. Oh my gosh! We had zero viewers five minutes ago and here you are. So, welcome!

Today we're going to be dealing with such a hot topic, the Wealth Acceleration. Let me go through a few ground rules with you. When we're in the class, I love that you are responsive to what I'm saying; please don't talk back and forth to each other while we're doing the class because I'll be seeing some of your stuff on the screen and it'll distract me. But you're welcome to make comments about what's happening, or ask questions and as I can, I will respond to you. Also, please don't post your website. Somebody did that last week, that's hysterical. You'll actually be banned from the texting part of the class if you're inappropriate. God bless you. This is a sacred class and we're not marketing anything to anybody here. We're just getting the activations.

At the end of the class, I'm going to let you know about a free Valentine activation that I'd love for you to join me on and we'll be posting the information in the sign up for that activation. So one more gift to you. I just want to thank you so much from the bottom of my heart for coming in to this class. For me, I think it's going to be amazing for you and it also lightens my schedule a little bit. I'm so wady. I just was not having one little break all day long day after day after day, and you've just gifted me the opportunity to really do some deep work with you and also to lighten of the schedule a little bit. So, I just want to thank you so much. We really appreciate you and look forward to getting to know you.

So, we're going to be working on wealth today. I thought we'd start with a couple Mantras; one for the immediate manifestation of wealth and one for the removal of all debts. So, I will sing those for you. If you'd like to get in a comfortable seated position, spine erect, feet on the floor, hands in front of heart. This is Namaste. I honor the god or the goddess within in you, Namaste. And then Miracle Mudra; you drop your hands open, palms up. Miracle Mudra is the Mudra of receptivity, of being able to receive all the gifts of the Universe. So while I chant these two mantras, leave your hands in this position of Miracle Mudra. Breathe in through your nose, and out through your mouth and receive the blessings of a mantra.

[Chanting 00:03:39 to 00:05:02] And just receive the blessings of the Universe, immediate manifestation of wealth and immediate removal of all debts. And as you receive the abundance, I want you to take Miracle Mudra and tip it in to your hearts and then right hand over the left hand in a universal Mudra of self-wealth and self-affinity. Accept these gifts, accept these shift in your consciousness, shift in perception, and shift in your field. And you can let your hands drop in your laps and we're going to start with the declaring of "I love myself. I trust myself. I give myself permission to express my unique self." So I have permission and I express my unique self, and the trust and the love and permission to be yourself are very key to our healing process and to our wealth process, because as you really love yourself, as you step into that place of knowing that you are divine, that you are part of the goodness of the divine, then you have the ability to start really manifesting.

If you'd like to join in with me on the clearing, you can use your hand in this quantum pump action. And some of you have been in some of my other classes so you've seen how this works. The quantum palm activates the quantum field. Ooh and I can feel some of you joining in. Thank you. It's always so sweet. I know that many of you are natural healers and many of you are professional healers and you come with this great love and actually great skill, so it's really fun to give you these little tools that change reality. I just love it.

And then we'll be going on to clearing worthiness also and that will be in the next round, and then the ability to bring in money, sustain it. Some of you can bring it in and you can't sustain it, and then to grow it. And growth might be a very confusing process, growing money and so whether you're growing it by putting it in a retirement or savings account - which is important - everyone should have retirement and a savings account, or you're growing it by building a business and you can see exponentially you have more products, you're selling more, it's also growing it. But you need to have a solid base with your finances.

And ladies who are really guilty of this, of really putting people before ourselves and not creating financial security for ourselves, thinking that the Universe will take care of us. Maybe a lot of people on the call have that issue where, "This wealth, I'm going to surrender to the Universe and I know that something will happen..." Of course something happens, but you have the right and the blessing in this Garden of Eden of truly having abundance as a king or queen or a god or a goddess of the planet. You certainly don't need to just fly by the seat of your pants and hope that money will come and in a wish or in prayer, something does always kind of sneak there. If you could start thinking about a different foundation, a different context of how you create money with a firm foundation, we will be creating and clearing that space of firm foundation by getting your feet under you, feeling the solid, feeling the spirit completely filling up the body, understanding your Universe and being able to manifest in the way that truly supports you. And sometimes you trust and if you're on a divine mission, it's amazing. I will tell you a little bit about my story while we're clearing this. Let me just check and see how far we are in, about 80% through, so we got a minute or two left on this one and then we'll go to the next one.

Some of you might have seen the video where I talk about being homeless and it's true. I was homeless for a year. I was selling real estate and I had too many medical bills and just bills in general that I just couldn't make ends meet. I was trying to get myself back in work. I had beautiful clothes and a nice car. Bad news when the car was slipping and got repossessed, because I couldn't make the payments of it. That was a nightmare. But somehow I got through it. I slept in my car. I put a twin bed mattress in my car. One of my friends had a garage; they let me store my things. I had like a suitcase with some pretty clothes and I would go into my office, my beautiful, prestigious - Seville Properties down at Menlo Park, which was high end property, and I would clean up in the bathroom and put my clothes and my make up on. I get there an hour before the staff would get there and tidy up and be in working. I was known as the person who was working at 6 in the morning and 'til midnight at night. There was a reason for that. It was interesting.

So what happened in that experience? And I know I was always meant to be a leader so obviously, what was happening there was meant to happen, is people could see that there was something happening with me. I started forming a mastermind in the office and all of a sudden, everyone in the office, every 32 elite real estate sales people wanted to come under my tutelage on how do you manifest, how do you create from nothing, how do you create from nothing. I'm telling you the truth. I went from homeless, got in this little dinky apartment right next to East Palo Alto, which is probably the scariest neighborhood you could possibly live in and I could hear gunshots going off when I was actually in the little place. Some friends gave me furniture that I used temporarily for a few months while I was getting myself back on my feet. And from that, in that same office because I was only there two years, I was leading these masterminds because people were watching and I was -- my sales were off the roof. I was churning away with sales. I was working night and day, but I was selling houses like there's no tomorrow. Of course there's time for the houses to close, and then there's paying off all the debts. The IRS and the car and the 'this' and the 'that', the medical bills, so all of that got paid off in that one ... got taken care of.

And that mastermind was where I started showing people how I create a mock up, how I envisioned something as real, and then hold it in my mind's eye a couple times during the day. And so that was where it started. And I went through a lot more after that. I was never homeless again, but I had a lot of difficult times before I got to where I am now. And I think the thing that I can I share with you is all the blessings of how to clear, not have to go through years of ups and downs and hanging on by your fingernails. Think about that. We don't want any of you to do that. So, this is a given.

So we've already started in on the next one which is worthiness and also from worthiness, we're clearing the ability to bring in money, the ability to sustain money, maintain it, and the ability to grow or amplify it. So we're doing that now.

By the way, when we work with this, I want to tell you a little bit about the human blueprint, because I think it will be helpful for you and if you're new to me, this might be very really fun. What we're using are fields to make changes. So the human blueprint is PEMER; perception, essence, matter, energy and realms. Perception is those thought forms; so we are clearing perception and that exists even before your spirit exists, perception exists. And when we think about perception, you think about group mind group mind virus, black magic, curses and traumatic episodes from past lives. What's not in perception are soul contracts, which are really not so created from you. I'm just going to tell you that that they are primarily created from the darker energies. And the other one is demonic curses; they are not part of the field of perception. Emotions, we clear also in this process, and we do clear soul contracts and demonic curses in this process. Emotions, the field of emotions actually lives in the emotional body, so there's the etheric boy that's the emotional body. If there's thought forms associated or attached to emotions, they can be found in perception. And then we also clear DNA and that's a little bit clearing than this hand pump, but we can do the hand pump and that will work today. So we need to teach you the advanced things at the moment.

But what we're working on in realms, we have four realms. The first realm is the realm of Genesis and of course that makes perfect sense, the beginning of new life. One of the things that I always do in my VIP program and we'll be doing in the Golden Age Year of Miracles program is cellular Neo-genesis. And that is regeneration of the master cells, the stem cells that were with you seven days after you were conceived. So that's cellular Neo-genesis. We actually use the quantum field, so this pump, the quantum pump. We use the quantum field to bring the human blueprint, the design, the original design of the cell in to your body, so that original perfected design comes into your body and so the master cell returns to its perfected god-state.

Then in a program in the mitochondria, we set up a cascade of new cell growth and so we see that we're using Genesis and we're using amplification which is -- we'll go through the fields for you. So we use Genesis, which is the first one. The second realm is Realm of Embodiment. So there are many beautiful aspects to the Realm of Embodiment, being able to have the spirit in a body which was created for us so that we could have this beautiful experience, not just as a spirit but as a spirit in body, so embodiment. And then the third realm is Quantum and the fourth realm is Amplification. And Amplification can help with the cascade of new cell growth because it's amplifying things. So when we look at amplifying our money, we would want to use the field of Quantum and the field of Amplification, so this -- activating Amplification. So instead of having three students on the call, having 200 students on the call; that would be the field of Quantum. If I were working on and I'm bringing in 200 students into the call, I'd be using Quantum and I'd be using Amplification.

Okay, so this will kind of take a couple minutes, and I will read some of the comments and I need to scoot way close to my computer. Alright.

This is repair all of the body. Well today is the wealth day, but yeah you can use cellular Neo-genesis to repair the body. My techniques, I teach in my Immersion program but just in general, let me say that you have clear soul contracts, that whole list I went through, soul contracts, soul contracts of others affecting you negatively, demonic curses, black magic, group mind, group mind virus, traumatic episodes from past lives, emotions and DNA. So you clear them up first before you do cellular Neo-genesis. And then you also remove any spiritual parasites and then you can do the cellular Neo-genesis. So you want to clear all of that. A lot of times we'll work with DNA before we do regeneration. Sometimes the regeneration is necessary because there are programs in the DNA that just don't serve you. That would be another thing we do. Anyway, that's like a year course. I have a fast -- what do I say, really an immersion where you just get completely marinated in the information and it's called the Diamond Immersion Program. It's a seven day training. So that's it in general and in kind of a nutshell.

Okay, I get that there's a conversation, there's digestive, there's health issues, we're working on money today. And of course we do have it laid out on the different issues and each week we'll be addressing -- I don't know which weeks. I know that last week we have, definitely we have health issues and I think, I'm guessing we have health issues in most of the -- I think we have money and love, and then I think the last two weeks are health issues. So not to worry, you'll get a couple hours on the health rich generation, too. I'm so happy you're here. I love you.

Okay, let's see here. Oh, there's Trevor from Berlin and from France, and lots of good mornings. Good morning from Holland. So nice! Montana, New Jersey. Yay, hi you all, you guys! Hello, Julie! "Hello, everyone..." from Slava. Tamika, "Good morning..." good morning. Okay, I'm just going to scroll up. Lots of lovely good mornings. Thank you so much. That's such a nice, nice greeting, especially since it is morning here. Okay. "Large and small bowels, how many stem cells?" Not related to wealth, honey. But we will cover -- I believe that digestion is on the list, so that would be a question. We don't really care about how many there are, we work on the field itself and we work on the stem cells, so we don't really count them up, but I imagined we could. There is a master cell which is a stem cell that was with you, seven days since your parents conceived when you were about 140 cells dividing and that's the cell that we initially work with, and then it teaches the other cells how to regenerate.

Okay, I'm going to scroll up here. Ancha from Berlin, from Spain. So some of you are just popping on, huh? Okay. From Zurich, Switzerland. NC? Oh, good, Catherine's happy to work money issues, fantastic. Bangkok. Switzerland. Okay. Alright, well it looks like just mostly good mornings on there, so we'll keep going with the Wealth Acceleration.

This is something that you just really -- like I love this wealth work. Know that we have special trainings. There's a wealth class coming up mid-March. That's people bringing in 100,000 in three weeks; not every single person obviously. People bringing contracts, they bring in scholarships, they create miracles. It's just another step now where you actually do kind of a scientifically designed meditation and action program that really transforms things in a big way. So, you can check that out in the website if you like.

But for now, let's do a deeper clearing on all this blocks to wealth and abundance. And if you had a very specific thing that you are wanting to shift today, you are welcome to. I was guessing that some people would -- which has happened in other classes say, "Hey, could you work on this for me?" Like someone said worthiness was really important. So I'd love to see if you have some specific thing, let me know. Otherwise I've got my routine that I go through.

For ladies, lots of viewers, I'm so happy. It looks like most of us are on the call at this point. That's fantastic. And for those of you who came in a little later, I just want to extend my deep appreciation and gratitude for you accepting my invitation to come to this 4-week program in exchange for your 20 minutes. I know that it was a sacrifice to give it up. On the other hand, I think you're going to get so much more out of this than just one activation or two. We get to one or two on the phone call. In this, you're going to get to a whole bunch of them, so we'll probably do 50 activations in 4 weeks or more, maybe more.

Okay and we're about 80% through. Worthiness is cleared and we're working on being able to bring in, sustain, and then amplify money; so that's what we're working on. Income generation, pay off tax set, okay. "Good morning from Texas." Bring in the ideas, good. You know on wealth, wealth generation, you know the acceleration of wealth can do many things. When we have people in the Accelerate Wealth class, one of the things I know is that they improve their health because true health is having great health, having great love lives, having good relationships, having a good social life, and having a successful career, having good income, having good foundations, so you want to have all those things in place.

I am not anything like a Suze Orman, but I so respect her work because she just kind of sourced it out and there are many, many money gurus. I happened to go through her Women and Money book ten years ago. Everybody helped me figured it all out, like what insurances I need, and how I need my will, and durable power of attorney, and what I need to think about with my savings and my investments. So I found that to be really grounding on a physical level. It helped me sort of sort things out. I think in women's training -- my father always told me, "There's going to be a man taking care of you. You don't need to know anything about money..." Wow! Little did he know I was going to be a female leader who didn't have a man in her life for many years and needed to know this stuff. So, maybe you're finding yourself having been married and divorced and on your own as a woman, or having never been married and really now wanting to step into more power with your wealth manifestation.

You know one of the things I did when I sold real estate, I just took every class I could on real estate; staging, I was certainly an expert. Stage where I had an Art degree and I worked in a design studio, so I was really good at staging houses. But I took every sales class, every marketing class I could back then and that was part of the way I made the breakthrough. It's just I inundated myself with the latest, the greatest, the newest, the best. I have these scrapbooks that I made up and I would give them out to people and they'd look at all the homes I sold and all the happy, smiling people I've made these scrapbooks. Here's people I sold the houses to, here's the house I sold, this is what it sold for, and all my certifications, and thank you letters, and whatever. And I'd have like six of them that were always going out so that people would hire me as their agent, whether I was selling them a house or selling their house for them.

So when I changed gears and went into massage and 10 years into it, I realized I know nothing anymore about marketing because it had changed so much. And I was refusing -- eight years ago, I wasn't on the computer. [Laughs] Could you believe that? In eight years, I have got like this international following and I don't know 90,000 people on my YouTube channel, and this is so different. But eight years ago, I wasn't convinced that I needed to do emails. So people would send me an email and I wouldn't check for eight or nine weeks. I just didn't understand it. So you know you have to actually get yourself trained and up and running. So if you want to do internet marketing -- I hear a lot of people, spiritual people think, "Hey I might like to do internet marketing..." Well you really need to really like be in the game with the internet. So you have to have connections, and friends, and building lists, and you've got to have a pretty good social media following to really get your internet marketing going. Just understand that there are keywords and there are SEOs and all that stuff. But you can do it and I believe that you can do it, but it's got to be something that's kind of natural for you.

So when you look at sole purpose and your mission, really be thinking about, what's my natural inclination? What is my soul calling? Or what do I really love? What am I really passionate about? Because that's where you're going to really be seeing the mission fulfilled. When you take it out of survival and you put it into, I'm going to thrive and I'm going to do my life's purpose. I could do things, like my astrology said, "Oh you can sell houses or you can be the CEO of a company." You should be. So I have this very powerful astrology, but then you have to actually sort out why did you come here? What was the purpose for [Inaudible 00:30:19] gone through? What was the purpose of the place you were born, or the family members that you have? What was the purpose of your education? And if you can kind of really begin to step into I can live my calling, my true mission mastery, I can and what is it that I really love and really passionate about? How can I help people, help humanity, help the world, help the environment? Where your heart is connected with your divine self -- we can do a Mudra in a minute on that. We'll connect the heart with the divine self, and that you're really not just doing something for work, but you're doing your mission. And I believe each one of you on the call have a mission.

You are here for a reason. God sent you to this Earth and I don't know if you want to think of it that way, but you got a body. A hundred people didn't get a body and you got a body. You were here to do something. You wanted to do something. You are excited about it. You said, "I think I can make a difference. Let me go do it." And so now you're here. You have the keys to the kingdom. You have this body that's forgotten who she was or who he was, so I get that you don't get to take all of your information from once I do the other, but you jumped in, you got a baby body, you grew it up and here you are, and what is it that you're really here to do. That's what I'd like you to be contemplating.

We'll be working on clearing mission mastery. I think that will be amazing. It's being able to really live into your mission and being able to make money; so bringing in money in your mission, in your soul calling. Because some of us have it wired up that we have to be altruistic, we have to give it away and that's not the way it's going to work. I realized kind of early on in this process that I currently ... Now I can't give things away if I'm going to actually take this completely global. So understand that if you're really thinking that what you want to do -- you know I'm friends with a couple of the big kings in the world, and I look at them and I think okay, so Jeff Hoffman, he was a senior of Priceline, brought Priceline up. He was part of the startup group that brought Priceline into the world. And you have to think in bigger terms, like they saw that it was going to spread like wildfire. So think about if you're wanting to play a bigger game, you got to think and then I need to create a container for it. I know I've heard people say, "Well, I'm going to get funding." But if you get funding, there's always going to be restriction. There's always going to be like a big brother watching over your shoulder. "Are you using the money the way we want you to?" And I tell you there's some kind of great freedom in being able to actually earn the money that you need to pay the people, or develop a book, or to design a program, or whatever it is, and then I realized all of you will have different callings. Maybe it is working in the government. I know someone who really makes life better in social services and really helps lots of people. I just want you to know that your mission, your purpose, your mastery is going to actually be wired in to have you living in the Garden of Eden. You're going to actually be happy doing it and it's not going to feel like a hardship, it's not going to feel like a torment, or "Oh I've got to get through this..." That is not your mission. I can guarantee you that your mission had something to do with your happiness, your fulfillment, your complete full self-expression.

And as we're talking about mission -- have we shifted intuition? Not yet. Let's see. So we're at sustaining money is at 90%, growing money is at 100% clear and 50. Okay and then amplify money is at 5%. So that should get -- we've got a few more minutes on this. Are you starting to feel some shifts? Are you feeling something shifting in you? I hope so.

So what I was talking about is a kind of joy and alignment, so that the high self is integrating with the physical body. So you're actually living your high-self mission.

Wow! Thank you to some of you who are staying up in the middle in the night. I love you. I'm so happy that you're awake. It's first thing in the morning here for me, 8:30 in the morning right now. It's so beautiful, beautiful day, little bit of clouds. I'm in Northern California and here the weather is mild, it's probably around 55, 60 degrees which is so sweater weather. Wear a sweater. Yes.

I'm going to speed this up. I do a different hand movement. You do this. If you're doing it, do this. And if you have started doing the hand movement, when we all do it together, it goes a little faster. And then my hand movement, which you should not do, it's a big teacher hand movement, just makes things go a lot faster. It's kind of like starting a hurricane and I don't want you to start a hurricane. But I can do it; I can reach out to all of you and get things moving a little faster by doing this kind of funny movement - which I don't like you to do. Don't do it. [Laughs] Do this. That. That. That. That. I did it in slow motion, but like this.

Alright and I will be getting some notes while we're getting there. Let's see. Thank you, Norma. "Energy shifted, world of spider, colors are clear." Wonderful. Wonderful. Wonderful. "Feels the difference." Norma is in my VIP program. Yay, Norma! I'm so happy. But that does happen. In that program, we grow back the cells of the brain and there's a certain point, sometimes it happens a little sooner for people and sometimes it takes a while. But over about 150 days, she grew back new brain cells and she's just hit that place where there's enough new brain cells that everything's lighter, brighter, clearer and feels wonderful. I think the other thing that goes along with that shift is emotional generosity is what I call it. But there's this base of emotions that's so expansive that really, you have more room for people to make mistakes and to be themselves and you don't have ... and they can be themselves and you have room for it. I love that.

Okay, so that's wonderful. It's still shifting. A.K. Finley, "Wow can perfection be controlled to allow wealth to be created?" That's a wonderful question. I think we have to -- we'll put clear perfect pictures on the list because I know that nothing is ever perfect and if you would limit it, for example -- Hi, Alyssa! We've been working very hard at getting this beautiful presentation style really nailed. And we've had problems with the technology, we've had problems with the send out system, and I just know that once we've reached a certain level, it all clears. And this is unbelievable; when the guru in India was saying you're going to need all these initiations because you're going to be -- he saw me teaching in temples. What I really believed he was seeing was this incredible reach where we can reach out to every country and do it in an instant. And it is a ceremony or due clearings or uplifts and -- I don't know, it's just phenomenal.

But if you were worried about being perfect, you might wait for the technology to be perfect, which might be another 10 years. And so for me, the opportunity is to great work but to not be obsessed with perfection. Obviously you always want to be giving your best, giving your best, giving your best, and I know we're kind of in the early phases of technology and this live streaming process, but you guys like it, right? I mean, this is pretty cool, not just as a tele-summit but a place where you can actually see me and I'm teaching you and really I'm with you in your living room, or in your office, or wherever you are. And it's not just a voice; you actually get to put two and two together. And I think this is incredible, but if I were caught up in perfect pictures, I would have shut it down the first day, and instead we're reaching thousands of people on, so that's it.

The other thing too I went through -- you guys have to check my YouTube channel, because you're going to love it. There's training after training after training. Little short 3 minute, 2 minute clips, 4 minute clips, and they are in playlists. Well, I went through and I looked at what I started with and I removed 60 videos that were really silly videos of me. I started learning how to use a video, the camera, and YouTube and they're just goofball there. No makeup, no hair, you know, me in the woods. Some of you might have seen those pictures of me teaching, not knowing any better. I'm just like, oh this is how you do this, and just kind of Julie on the spot. And I just literally took them down like a week ago, the 60 goofball pictures of me, videos of me.

I think one of the things that's really helped me with the perfect stuff is to be willing to be a goofball and have fun. Perfect comes serious and that's not a place of transformation. [Inaudible 00:41:45] is a place of transformation. So if the phone rings, which I don't have a phone in the room today, but if the phone rang, I would make fun of it. I would make fun of myself for forgetting to put the phone out of the room, or turning the phone off. So it's just like the opportunity is to have fun with everything and make fun of yourself. If things aren't going well, just make fun of yourself.

Okay my dears. Yes, we've worked on worthiness, rejection, past life traumas, health issues, digestion, afraid of shining. Okay. You know fear of being magnificent is one, or shining, or being bright, that's one that a lot of people have; so we'll clear that one. Okay, so understand -- By the way, I got a message from Teresa who's at work but she's got the player running. You will get the benefit but I'd love for you to also then look at this when you're not distracted with work, because the benefit for this program is in being part of it. And it doesn't mean being part of it live, it just means being part of it. So when you can really put your heart present in the program with me, whether it's now, or a day from now, or a week from now, or a month from now, that's when you're really going to get the benefit, when you're really present with the energy. So that's what I recommend. And I'm happy though that you get to pop on live because you get to be a part of the live movement too.

Okay, that's a really good one. Tracy, "Blocks to being able to sell things..." Especially if you're a sales person, that won't be a good one. "There will be a replay?" Yes. It'll go out relatively quickly so absolutely, there'll be a replay. "Fame, blocks to fame." Great! By the way, if the quantum activations for success like fame and communication and selling and those kinds of thing is an issue you're dealing about, we will cover what we can today. There is a class, there is a training called Quantum Success Activations on the website and it's modestly priced, which takes you through to the top 24 blocks to success and business. So if you wanted to work on that more with yourself, like you wanted to do something that would like, this would really help with this, you can take it to the next level if you want to.

Okay. Rae is seeing an invisible glass ceiling. I'm so excited with this year. I had been earning a six figure. I was always earning between a 135,000 and 193,000 and I could just never shift and I did that for like seven or eight years. And I did it this year. I did it, I did it! It just feels so good to know that there isn't something restraining you and these wealth clearings -- I did my 21-day Accelerate Wealth Program, that's the thing coming up, I did that three times in 2013. I did it three times through. So I did three, 21-day cycles. And then I did these wealth clearings that we're doing today and I did days of them. So I would just look at every possible block that I had and then would clear it. Talk about a glass ceiling being worn off. Really, really amazing. So you can do it; you can totally do it.

I think that happens in the 21 days, we turned the field into a wealth magnet. Your actual Aura and field around you is pulling in, it's magnetizing what you're wanting to manifest, so it's just drawing it in and you're becoming such a magnet.... so you can do today to bring in more money is to get grateful and every minute, start saying what you're grateful for as you move along the day. I'm grateful for the light that's making my face bright. I'm grateful for the shampoo I used on my hair. I'm grateful for my -- whatever. But just everything, everything, everything, being grateful, and sincerely grateful. I just feel so blessed. I feel so blessed! Thank you, God. Thank you, God. Do that all day long because that amplifies the energy that you're really looking for. So understand that the more grateful you are, and the more that you really put it out in the Universe, I'm grateful, I'm grateful -- maybe you can make a gratitude list twice a day. Say it to everybody who you interact with. "Thank you so much, that's so kind of you to do." You know where you keep that gratitude going, gratitude going, that is one of the biggest things you can do to get your field magnetizing more good to you by saying, "Thank you Universe, I like this. Thank you Universe, I like this. Thank you Universe, I like this..." and it gives you more, and more, and more.

Wahoo, let's see if we're through that. Yeah! Okay, good. Okay, so we're going to clear mission, we're going to clear fear of being bright, blocks to s and blocks the fame. We'll get through about 70% of that, so we'll take you almost to the end. I promise you, we will do a Mudra at the end. So we'll stop, but if all of you are pumping, that will help clear the group a little faster. I read that we'll only get 70% done, but maybe we can get a few more people pumping and get more of it done.

I just want you to know how much I love and appreciate you and that your life matters, that you being here makes a big difference to me, and that I am just so excited that you get an opportunity to work on full self-expression in this life, and I'm excited that we're connected and that we're going to be working on that for you for the next month. You are a wonderful, you have value, you are important, and you're very important to me. Thank you so much for being here, and being courageous, and putting yourself out in the world and in a way that's loving, and kind, and has integrity, and impeccability and honor. Thank you for how you cherish people and how you respect and honor people. And for those of you men, thank you for being my hero. Thank you for opening doors for me and for other women, and thank you for the way that you provide and protect for me. Thank you. I just so appreciate you. You are all so wonderful. This is the best class.

Let's see what we got here. Aww, thank you, Dara. Is that Dara? Dara. Oh that's such a pretty name. Mika, "Thank you..." You're welcome. Here it is. Thanks for the reminder, I needed it. Perfect.

So you guys, you now have this pump, so this week -- and by the way, it's still Mercury Retrograde so don't get too distressed if things ... moving yet. We're actually in the class while it shifts out of Mercury Retrograde, because we're going through the whole month. So understand that when you're in Mercury Retrograde, which is an astrology transit, it means that kind of like things are going backwards. So everything slows down; communication slows down, things don't come together, like that. So the strategy in Mercury Retrograde is to work on things from the past. If you complete things from the past, you'll be very successful and it'll happen really fast.

Last week, I declared that I was going to start fishing field manuscripts and I actually literally put my mind to getting 'Awakening the Healthy Human', done. I went through the editor's edit from a few years ago. I decided that wasn't going to be my first book out, so I never published and I wrote it 2010. And wouldn't you know, I was able to finish it. I was able to go through from start to finish. I was able to get the title page in, and I was able to get the stuff in the back of the book that needs to be back there, and respond to all the editor's questions and comments, and I have it in someone's hands to get it up on Kindle. So you see, it can move very fast even if it's something from the past. So in this period I think it might be, if somebody else probably knows better, but I think I heard maybe February 18th is when we're out of retrograde. So for the next maybe two weeks, you could work on completing things from the past. So cleaning things up with the old relationships, working on taking out projects that you haven't had time to finish; this would be a good time to push on those. Things that are new like starting new projects, wait until after the 18th. It'll just be easier. I mean you can start now, but why not start when the energy is flowing?

Thank you, Debbie from South Africa. It's very nice. Masta, thank you. Oh, thank you, guys. I think there's a lot of beautiful greetings there. I am just so appreciative of you. I know this is like a very, very, very special group. You're big-hearted, you're generous. You have so much love to share and so much love to give and I'm really wanting this to be a launching pad for you, where there's some kind of real freedom and like a shift for you that you're unrecognizable. That's what I really want from this class for you; the discovery class.

So if you were at 11th, okay somebody else -- so that's even faster. So if it's the 3rd today, the 11th is one week. So use the ... I'm happy to hear that actually, thank you. Use this to work on things from the past; that's going to help you a lot. Wow that excites me! Things are going to move forward again. Yay! [Laughs]

Okay, we'll have a wonderful class again next week. We have another five minutes. We'll just clear, clear like crazy. But you know how to do this now, so it's what you're clearing if you want to make some notes are -- or you can just review this again, soul contracts, soul contracts of others affecting you negatively, demonic curses. And then we go to the field of perception which has five things in it; group mind, which is a meme, group miasm or group mind virus basically, which is miasm, black magic, curses from other people, and traumatic episodes from past lives - that's what's in perception. So we're clear with perception. And then the next one is emotions, we clear emotional patterns from the body and from the emotional body. And then finally it's DNA.

So you can just use your pump and you can start working on those blocks. There's some real power in speaking the truth. We'll try to align with what's accurate. Not truth like your personal truth. Because people can kind of spat out about your truth and then you will go, "Okay well that's a version..." if you're in neutrality. If you're not in neutrality, you can go, "Wow, that's really annoying." That perfect kind of truth that doesn't have anything to do with other people's realities, so you want to be speaking love and accurate, and truth doesn't have anything to be with judgment, if you think about that. Truth is neutral, it is what it is. Truth is not hurting people's feelings. Truth is a fact. So you want to be not the distributor of unkind words to people because it's your truth or your interpretation of your truth. But what I am talking about is really being accurate, being kind, being loving and not making up things, or telling people little lies because you can or because it's more entertaining.

Alright, my dears, here we go, we have three minutes and what we're going to do next, and you can keep pumping after the class. When we work together like this, my field and the quantum field will be around you for another hour, so you can keep pumping away if there's some things that we didn't get to because we [Inaudible 00:57:30] but we got through a lot. We did a good job and I'm so proud of you, and I know that you're going to be experiencing some shifts this week.

So let's put our hands together again in front of our heart and a Namaste. And then I'm just going to scoot back a little so you will see it a little better. Okay and then what we're doing is we're opening -- this is a lotus. This is a lotus and you integrate the heart with the high self, and so that's what we're going to do for our completion. And we'll activate Lakshmi and ask her for her blessings. She is the goddess of grace, beauty, love and abundance. So I'd like you to breathe in and out. Breathing in as you raise your hands above your head and then breathing out. And I'll do that Lakshmi chant. [Chanting 00:58:36 to 00:59:00] And just feel the integration of your heart's desire with your high self. You are one with your divine self. You are magnificent. You are loved and so amazing to me.

Let me know if you're having some changes. I'd love to get emails that say, "Wow, things changed!" And we'll see you next week on the call. I love you so much. Have a blessed and beautiful day. God bless. Bye.
