Emotional thought forms

Typically live in your energetic Field otherwise known as your aura

Can also take root in any part of Your body, for example heart ache Gut wrenching, pain in the neck

Can also be embedded in your Essential natural, Your Essence or Spirit

This issue can be cause for why Emotion comes from lifetime to Lifetime and when in Essence is Referred to as Karma

Emotional Body

Your Emotional Body is part of your aura and occupies about 40% of it

It can expand to occupy beyond the aura and can contract

When expanded people feel you typically it is unpleasant

When contracted you are shut down, or literally shut off feeling blocked from your emotions

Etheric Body

Your Aura

Your emotions can fill or occupy all parts of the 7 layers of the aura.

The aura becomes black when grieving the loss of a loved one

After an abortion the fetus who has shared the mothers body, leaves behind a black aura for the duration of the 9 months

Joy and expansion are also radiated from the aura

Emotional Brain

The pre 3 emotional brain development the amygdala defines your emotional response to all situations, and although western medicine says this is permanent, it can be improved
