My cancer story and How I got this Incredible Knowledge

If you have breast cancer now

- * Stay positive
- * Keep your good diet

I recommend the Gerson protocols

* Meditate, pray, walk in nature Keep your mind clear and focused on great health celebrate your life and all you have to live for

There are challenges to every path

Many years back I used radiation and surgery.
Do what you are confident with and that is the right choice for you

DNA Obliteration Process

DNA Obliteration

This is the process of removing harmful DNA information from all cells of the body using the quantum field. This technique supports a healthy future, removing items like cancer and dementia genes. Two techniques, one guided imagery, second quantum pump, slide movement. Medically documented removal of Cancer DNA.
