

Chapter 7: Human Spirit Access Portal

Angels Call (2003)

*Angels call while we are sleeping
Riding through the waves of dreams
Keeping safe our mortal bodies
While we play in astral streams*

*Beams of light flow from their bodies
Showing us a glimmering mirror
Waking to the world of wonder
Leaves behind all doubt and fear*

Ever wonder how everything works in relationship to your spirit and physical body? It is fun to discover the access point and the incredibly well-designed connection of embodied humans to spirit. When the portal is clear and open, a person is free to live a fully self-expressed and active life. But when the portal is damaged or blocked, a person's experience is that of a life half lived.

The human spirit access portal to the physical body is located in the back of the head, three-quarters of an inch above where the spine meets the skull. The opening is oblong in shape, an inch and a quarter long, and three-quarters of an inch wide.

This human spirit access portal begins to develop in the fetus at an age of one hundred and forty-two days in the womb and continues to develop until full access is obtained. It becomes fully useable around five hundred and eighty-two days from the start of fetal development. The human spirit access portal grows until the child reaches about age ten, at which age the portal has fully developed.

The purpose of this access portal is to provide a doorway for the spirit to readily gain access to the body. Like the unique fingerprint identifying an individual, this entryway is unique to each spirit, allowing access only to the spirit who grew and developed the body—that is, the owner of the body.

The blueprint for this access point is maintained in the spiritual body. Growth and development of the body is directed from human spirit. Knowing this gives us strong cues on how to approach healing and repairing the doorway to the human body.

Causes for Closures and Reduced Access

Illness and aging top of the list of “access clogs.” As the spirit returns to the body, after its separation during sleep or meditation, spiritual “gunk” can be scraped off onto the portal during re-entry. For example, imagine paraffin wax collecting around a bottleneck, after multiple entries of paraffin into a bottle. Similarly, after hundreds of entries into the body through the access portal, spirit’s pathway can likewise become significantly blocked.

Benjamin, Marty, and Bill’s Story

Benjamin, Marty, and Bill are mature men who all came to be healed for the first time at a Miraculous Living event. As the weekend progressed, they connected with each other and started comparing stories. All of them had, at some point, experienced serious brain trauma. They all had the best treatment that Western medicine could offer them, but little awareness that anything else could be done to improve their situations. The weekend of healing for each of them was very eye-opening.

Before I did the big brain healing, which involved clearing all five brains, (See Chapter 16), I did a human access portal clearing, opening up each of their portals. What I discovered was each man had significant blockages to his portal, preventing his spirit’s easy access to the brain: Thirty- six years prior, Benjamin had survived a horrendous car accident. His portal was sixty percent blocked; Marty who had been in a coma after a near fatal motorcycle crash eight years prior was seventy percent blocked; and Bill who had survived the Viet Nam war and had since suffered with PTSD was fifty-four percent blocked.

To me, it was amazing that these fellows had any life at all, their spirits having had so little access to their bodies. When the spirit cannot get into the body, the body does not have the proper foundation that allows fulfillment. Imagine a baseball with the nice leather exterior and well sewn treads which only has thirty percent or forty percent of the stuffing inside. A baseball player would be hard pressed to get any “life” or game out of the ball. This ball is a D-U-D, dud. In the same way, the spirit that is largely absent from the body can wreak all kinds of havoc. Without the spirit being fully embodied, pain can take over, emotions can turn flat, and a person’s affect may become “deadpan.”

Colin's Story

The extent to which the spirit occupies the body is largely responsible for the health of the body. I once treated a newborn named Colin. Colin had only partially gotten into his body. After a week in the hospital, he still had a critical lung and heart issue. Medical professionals offered no help other than to say they expected the child to die within a year.

Desperate for assistance, Colin's mother Kate remembered me and how much I had helped her during her pregnancy. She called me from her car, asking if I could help her little one. As I greeted her at the door later that day, I saw the eyes of a mother on a mission, weary and worn because her precious child was suffering. She told me of the constant little cuts on his heel and all the tears everyone had shed because their little "king" was in danger.

Together we all went into the healing room, and laid little Colin on the table in his bunting. Using a hyper state of awareness, I felt into him. I could feel he had no access as a spirit to his chest. I was able to resolve the issue in fifteen minutes, after which the child experienced much improved heart and lung health function.

What I did was show Colin's spirit how to get into his chest cavity. I held the doorway open for Colin's spirit, allowing this spirit to access what it previously could not. I also showed his spirit how to own his physical body and maintain the area. Twelve years later I still get Christmas cards with photos of Colin, healthy and strong. He's never since had a challenge regarding the ownership of his chest cavity.

The Purpose of the Incarnated Spirit (Owning the Body)

After opening the spirit access portal for Marty, Benjamin and Bill, they were now able to own their bodies. After their brain healings, many additional awakenings happened but these would not have been possible if we had not first cleared their human spirit access portals.

In these cases related to injury and limitation in the flexibility and movement of the neck, once the human spirit access portal has been opened and spirit again owns the body, the neck becomes supple and flexible. That was the case with these gentlemen. Years of pain and stiffness dissolved, allowing them to easily turn their necks from side to side.

What is blocking the human spirit access portal? That 'gunk' (that's a technical term, by the way) is residue that comes from the mental body.

Where does the mental residue come from and how do you avoid its negative effects?

Negative group mind or memes play a major role in this residue. When the human spirit plays in a field of negative group mind, a build-up of “that which is not true” attaches to the outer edges of the spirit. Imagine playing football in a muddy field and then squeezing through a door that resonates with your energetic signature. The mud has no access to your authentic signature and is left behind on the entryway into the body. Daily residue deposits build to significant levels as a person ages.

Restoring Access

The process of cleaning and clearing is a simple one, but will not happen without intervention. Think about people who don’t realize they can wash their winter parkas. The coats eventually get filthy and will need to be replaced. In the case of the human access portal, however, since it is the main access point and can’t be replaced, it will continue to build up residue until the death of the body.

Cleaning the opening for spirit to enter the physical body can be done with a number of unique and effective processes, as follows:

Five Effective Ways (to restore the human access portal)

1. Repetitive Action

- a. Connect with the Divine.
- b. Begin repetitive action using violet light from the hands when transmitting healing energy to the human spirit access portal. (Note: violet light emitted from the fingertips will not disturb a person’s spirit-body link. It will be comfortable and easy for him or her to experience.) Continue this action until you read one hundred percent access.

2. Vacuum

- a. Connect with the Divine.
- b. Set a vacuum energy four inches from the human spirit access portal, behind the head. This technique requires a twirling hand movement to activate the vacuum momentum. Continue until its reading shows that spirit has full access.

3. Light Process

- a. Connect with the Divine.
- b. See the blocked area light up from the inside as pink.

This process is done without using hands to emit energy. This is a self-healing technique so the pink originates from individuals who heal themselves by accessing universal light. Continue amplifying pink light until the residue has moved out of existence.

4. Perfection Alignment

- a. Connect with the Divine.
- b. A healer's energy needs to resonate at one thousand, or Christ consciousness, in order to heal in this way. Raise your energy, if it is not already there, to Christ consciousness.
- c. Connect with the individual's past experiences or history for a Blueprint for perfect access. Restore fully open access by instilling the former state of perfection over the compromised opening until the opening is one hundred percent clear. This happens rapidly, using Gold light and using a light pumping action with the right hand. The maximum number of pumps is five for restoration if you're at "Christ consciousness" vibrational energy.

5. Self-Restoration

- a. Connect with the Divine.
- b. Follow the clearing meditation process. (Use one of our program meditations, such as the Definitive Guide to Meditation.)
- c. When you have completed the meditation, return to the center of the head and activate the halo over your head. Every person has Golden Rings. These rings allow you to access your Miraculous God energy to assist you in healing yourself and others

If you have never accessed these rings they may be dormant. The Miraculous Living spiritual tools can help you activate your rings. If you have difficulty accessing them, you may need a spiritual master to turn them on for you.

- d. Once your Golden Miracle Rings are vibrating, use the Gold Energy to purify the human spirit access portal opening until any residue is completely cleared.

This process may take up to six months of daily clearings to affect a complete restoration of the access point.

This clearing is an important part of many healing procedures in the Miraculous Healing process. Restoring the human spirit and body to wellness is a complex journey because this restoration involves asking the body what is needed next. By closely following the Miraculous Healing protocols, we can bring lasting health and wellness to those who for years—even an entire lifetime—have suffered from illness and poor health.

If this chapter has caught your attention, I would also like to direct you to the chapter on autism. In that chapter, to a very large extent, I explore the full impact of a human spirit being unable to access its body and outline steps to take that will enable the spirit to gain full access. There is a tremendous amount of detail in this chapter; the chapter will give you a great deal of information that you will find useful in fully connecting, filling out, and owning your own body in the most powerful way.
