

Divine Connection_Part 1_Transcript

Good morning and welcome to divine connection. Today, we're going to be exploring your own divine connection and your own divinity and it would be a wonderful and very blessed, intimate class. So please do sign in; let me know that you're here and we'll get started in just a minute.

I'd love to start the class with a Mudra. What we'll be doing is rubbing our hands together in front of our heart chakra, creating some spiritual energy and some Tapas. And when your hands get nice and warm, go ahead and put your right hand over your heart chakra and your left hand over your right hand in a universal Mudra of self-love and self-affinity. Affirm to yourself, I love myself. I trust myself. I express my unique self. Breathing in and out, letting that love shower over you. Putting your hands together in the cup of love, right in front of your heart chakra, so just making a cup with your hands. This is the cup of receptivity, of being able to receive all the blessings from The Divine and from the universe. Just close your eyes and breathe in and out and just see that cup of love filling, overflowing with blessings and deeply breathing in down to the tips of your toes, really allowing your spirit to settle into your body. (Exhales) A little sigh out, signalling to the body that it's time to relax. (Exhales) And tipping your hands into your heart, right hand first, left hand over right, in a universal Mudra for self-love and self-affinity, and just receiving all of what the universe has blessed you with. And we're going to do a Mudra for connecting and it's the second finger and the thumb together. This Mudra helps with communication, your divine communication and all communication as well, as a matter of fact. So let's energize this and energize divine communication. (Exhales) Just blow it a bit like a birthday cake.

Wonderful! Good morning Cindy, nice to see you there. Let me just check and see if we've got some other people on the call and we'll get started. Yes, some people are coming in. Alright, we're going to start the divine connection class with a reading. Oh great, Tony and John, I see you there. Thank you for signing in and I know there are people on the phone line too. Yay! And why don't you in the chat box let me know what you're looking for from this class. This is a deep and intimate class. We have a smaller group so we can really focus on what you're up to, what you want, as well as what I've got planned for you. We're going to be doing some poetry. We're going to be doing some meditation. We're going to be reading inspired works from Rumi, and Saint Theresa, and Bhagavad Gita, so we have a really wonderful class I've designed for you. And if there's something that you want, something that's like, "If I could get this, if this result happened, I would be thrilled..." Please let me know so that I can wire that into our time together.

I'm going to start with a beautiful poem. One second here, I've got the wrong one in my hands. That's interesting. Where did that jump to? Okay, let's go to the PowerPoint and I'm going to locate that first poem that we're starting with in just a moment. That's funny. Alright, then we'll start with another poem then. Why don't we start with the Bhagavad Gita.

'In Divine Connection, he who knows the truth, this glory and power of mine attains unflinching yoga. There is no doubt about this. I am the source of all. Everything is produced out of me. Knowing this, the wise worship me with devotion; with their mind and senses directed to me, explaining me to each other and talking of me, they are always pleased and happy. To these who are ever devoted to me and worship me with love, I give the yoga of understanding by which they could come on to me, just to bless them. I residing in their intellect destroy the darkness, born of ignorance by the resplendent light of knowledge.'

Beautiful, inspiring words from the Bhagavad Gita.

John, "I'd like to receive a deeper, stronger connection with The Divine, raise my vibration, purify healing on all levels. All you have planned and all that God wants me to receive from this class, protection from the darkness and or seize attaching to it. Thank you." And Cindy, "To be deeply connected to The Divine. I feel very disconnected to The Divine, God and myself for flowering of the heart." Alright my dears, those are beautiful intentions and I am aligned with you on manifesting that for you. That sounds absolutely wonderful.

I'd like you to just breathe in and relax and feel the presence of The Divine. I'm going to read some texts that came to me when I was in my 30's; I was having some beautiful experiences of remembering the divinity. Oh, I see Tony here too. "For my intention is to heal my divine connection, having experienced a lot of positive things but as well as negative side of church. I'm Catholic." Okay Tony, thank you so much. So that I had planned and I finally located this beautiful text that had come to me earlier in my life, in my early 30's and I'd like to share that with you now. It's called 'The One' and it talks about our beginnings and how humanity as a race began and that divine connection that we were back then and who we moved into. And we have a 2-hour period so I feel like this is a luxurious time to really go more deeply to enjoy the moment. We'll also be doing clearings in each of the two classes that we do, so we'll be adding. To me, this is a beautiful class. This is one where we get to let the grace flow into our class and to really feel the presence of The Divine.

'I remember a time when it was not, when all that was, was what could not be, when who was, was all and I was we. When I existed as we, we were a blaze. The light was life and I was not. Alone did not exist. But some part of the we broke off and throwing us out of balance, no longer a single living cell, we scattered in many directions. The brightest parts became the stars and planets. Those parts of what we were that were small became less brilliant. Because we could not access all of the light of the we, we became confused in the spinning off. We became the many. We focused on the we. The self, the sparkle, the glimmer became encompassed by a mass. It had a weight. It moved, thought, and felt. It responded to the temporary and the unreal came to be the unquestioned truth that we all knew was a lie. What could we do? I lacked in spark. My flame grew dangerously small. I longed for the fire of the we, the time of no time, when all that was, was what was not and no thing was real. I longed for the we, the blaze, the brilliance and the completion. There is a new, a beingness, a brightness found from the we. I in myself encompassed by the mass, lacking in spark have glimpsed at the new. It is purest light, brightest love. The new is the ancient revealed. It is a glimmer of the Omni. It is the remembrances of the we. It is the we. I am not. It is not. Truth is that which is unreal. I am and exist truly in the we. Only in my lack of existence am I free to be what I am not.'

So that's the beginning of a longer piece and we'll be sharing more segments of that as we progress. Let's see. And I'm seeing more messages so I'll just read them in the chat box here. I hope that you're allowing the presence of The Divine to start really moving into you, feeling more deeply connected and more relaxed as we go through the poetry and the clearings at the same time. Beautiful, okay, so let's see. Sharon, "To be deeply connected to The Divine with an open heart, full of love, understanding, forgiveness for all things and be aware of the beautiful, constant connection to The Divine." Beautiful! And then John, "P.S. My daily prayer, that I am receiving a steady stream of guidance from God and from all of my beloved masters and then I am receiving all of their guidance accurately, completely and that I am following all of the guidance accurately and complete in total acceptance." And then Sharon, "I would love to be living in a space place of grace and love at all times." "Completely surrendered to God..." that's John. "My will is perfectly attuned to God's will, so God's will had become my will." Beautiful! "Receiving a steady stream of guidance from God, beloved masters." Beautiful! I get that, John.

Alright, so we are not going to be working necessarily with spiritual parasites because you were saying, will you get it if you're attacked. I think what we can start with is some pumping. So let's change to our PowerPoint and really let's pump for anything that would block us. So we're going to be doing the quantum pump and anything that would block us from our divine connection. We're going to start with blood line, and Lucifer stops, soul contracts, demonic, evil spirit, and satanic curses, group mind, group mind virus, black magic, Atheist energy or Atheist thought forms, trauma, emotions, and DNA. So we're going to pump for 5 or 10 minutes and just move into a clearer space; everybody just doing the quantum pump. While we're doing the quantum pump, let's go ahead and we'll be doing a chant and we'll call and response. So you can just sing right there with your computer. 'Who am I as divinity? I'm stillness, quiet, open heart, I am.' So I will sing a line and then you will sing a line together; the same line so you get the melody.

[Singing]

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

Okay, let's sing that together.

[Singing]

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

Okay and let's go through that one more time, or maybe a couple more times as we're pumping to clear.

[Singing]

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

Beautiful Good job you guys. Thank you. Beautiful voices. And let just pump a little bit longer. It seems like we're about 70% through on this clearing, so everybody just pumping, pumping to create this clearing. And while we're pumping, let's see if we're about 70% through, while everybody is pumping, I'll read the next section of 'The One.'

'I remember a time when there was no speaking, when sound was outside of the realm. The self was still. There was no separation from the great we. We heard the vibrations of the brilliance. We heard the voice of love. Our self responded to the reckoning. A time when real was all and manifest was illusion. The we knew this self fully. The self knew the we. There was no lack and no separateness; only the echoing vibrations of the we. The we were the many and yet we maintain the silence and the ecstasy of the we. Great gratitude abounded in all parts of the we. Joy and peace were the stations of our parts. Nirvana, Shangri-La, paradise was the home of the we in perfect balance. The place of the we acknowledged. The place of the we as the only truth. And it came to pass and the we cried for the loss of the selves and the selves knew of the separateness and the selves forgot the vibrations of the we. The selves became engulfed in illusion and knew for the first time of aloneness. As the selves remembered less and less of the we, the desire arose to hang on to what was manifest. The attachment to the transient became replacement of the we. Once strong, brilliant, now only a dim memory. Many parts of the we became dangerously dark and the mother, the great soul of the we encompassed each part so that each tiny flicker would not go out, but would remain enshrined in her great love. She became the holder of the flame. She whose womb is the gateway to all the worlds gave with abandon. She became separate to each flame; her womb became a soul and so it was. As a lamp holds the light, so it is the soul holds the spirit. She held the parts of the we and though we knew separateness, we could also feel the great mother whose mercy of the great we became permanently protected in the vibrations of the soul. There many dangers threaten to extinguish the we, now clad in its pelvic armour, it was again saved. And so it was that the great mother gave to all and lost her being to save the we. And the we was grateful to the mother and remembered a time of no time, when all that was, was the we and so it was.'

Now let's see where we're at – 98% clear. Fantastic! So by chanting and by reading high elevation poetry or scripture, listening to high elevation music, the clearings go much, much faster. Wonderful! Just keep pumping and we'll go back to our PowerPoint and continue on with our process.

Divinity and the nature of expression of God known to humankind and we think about as we think about scripture, we have an image of God as an old man, but of course we realize that that's an image that the mind can grasp and comprehend and that The Divine is larger than what the mind can comprehend or grasp. And so although we have this beautiful father image to think of and for some, the mother image is also helpful. What is your feeling about The Divine? Do you experience it as a personality? Do you experience it as kind of an Omni presence? Is it male or female to you? There are no wrong answers to this. Everything is a right answer.

Okay and that one is cleared. So we were just clearing the bloodline down to DNA and things that would block divine connection and we're really looking now to clear our understanding of divinity. And so the next clearing that we do, bloodline down to DNA, would be on any blocks, religious blocks, any traumas that would really prevent us from feeling that deep, divine connection. And so again, we'll be clearing blood line, Lucifer stops, soul contracts, demonic, evil spirit and satanic curses, group mind, group mind virus, black magic which are things you say against yourself, curses from others, Atheist thought forms, trauma, emotions, and then DNA. So let's go ahead and start pumping for clearing that ability to be present with The Divine and be present in however your body being can grasp and comprehend The Divine. And we were 100% on the last clearing too, just to affirm that. I know some of you will want to know.

I'm going to read the next poem and this is the completion of 'The One.'

'Time which had become the measure passed and the weight and thought encompassing the flame and soul became heavier and darker, and the flame remained safe in the cradle of the womb. The encompassing weight was no longer translucent. As a diamond covered with mud, the selves remained and again forgot the we. Though the great mother held firmly her stance to always protect the flame. Now surrounded in the darkness of the weight of what was manifest, she longer for the consort, the light, the love to light her way. And so it was, her heart's call had heard through the we. Through all the worlds, the beloved in his great gratitude came to her and restored her sight. He came for her. She came for all. And so it was the (Inaudible 00:29:36) bridged by divine love and truth. I remember the mother. I remember the coming. I remember the love that embraced my flame. I remember a time when time was not and all that was, was not. Truth abounded. The vibrations of the we breathing were of great ecstasy and joy. Now remembering gives a new vibration, not yet as strong as the old but it is an answer to the call of the we. It is hope. I am the hope of the we returned. I am the movement and the rest. I am the surrender in the vibration of hope, that I am not so then finally I am as the we. Remember she says, when we were the I am, no thing could separate us to be the we as the vibrations of all beings as one breath, as one light. She said, hear the records of this essence, even before the we, remember the great I of all. Yes, I remember it well. I hear the call of the great mother. She speaks truth of my origin, of where I came and must return. She the armour of my spirit, she calls me now to her and so it is.'

And Sharon is responding to how The Divine appears for you and she says, "Omnipresence, neither male or female or both, The Divine is greatness that permeates everything." That's beautiful Sharon. Thank you so much for sharing that. Very beautiful. And we're about 60% through with clearing blocks to being able to experience the presence of The Divine, however it is that you interpret and feel the presence of The Divine.

We'll do another song. This one is 'A Call to Lighten.' A beautiful little chant as we pump and clear our ability to be present with The Divine. One second, I'll see if I can get that just pop on to our PowerPoint here. There we go. Not perfect, but good enough. This one really reflects on raising the thoughts of humankind so that we can experience our divine nature on the planet, in our experience or our existence. The melody is...

[Singing]

Soft the night and sweet the spirit

And so, we could do a call and response.

[Singing]

Soft the night and sweet the spirit

Gentle voices call our song

Gentle voices call our song

We are magic, we are wonder

We are magic, we are wonder

When we live beyond the veil

When we live beyond the veil

Humankind, please raise your thoughts

Humankind, please raise your thoughts

Bring a plain of peace and love

Bring a plain of peace and love

We the guardians of the pilgrims

We the guardians of the pilgrims

We the authors of the play
We the authors of the play

Alright, I'm noticing some things on the chat box have come in. "When you're reading, answering chats, etcetera, are you still clearing?" Definitely, yes. My hand is moving, John. And then Sharon, "Words cannot completely and clearly describe divine." That's true. "Thank you Julie Renee. What a beautiful class. For me, deep connection with The Divine is the foundation." Tony, "For me, my deepest nature, it is who I was and I am and always will be. It is everyone's nature as much as my own." Beautiful! And John, "Yay!" (Laughs) Cindy, "When I was a young girl at school, I had the most amazing experience of The Divine. When I went back to class, the teacher said, why would God want to know a person like you? I think this was when I disconnected. Will these clearings help or should I be clearing separately?" Yes, these clearings are definitely going to help Cindy; definitely going to help. You just keep pumping. We're 96% clear on this clearing.

"I want so much to come to God and permanently be in a higher vibration where I feel the presence of God at all times." I love that Sharon, that's beautiful. And you know when you're in your love nature, when you're in that experience of gratitude and love, that is when you are in your divine nature, right? It's when you're in the flow and where you can really be present and bringing to others the gift of love. So that kind of feeling with The Divine and divine nature. You know I've been really looking at over the last weeks, what is illness and what is separation? I have to look at and wonder if much of our disharmony is influenced by things that are not us. And so when you look at lower emotions like greed, envy, jealousy, anger – those emotions are stimulated or activated with some of the spiritual parasites, so you'll notice that that is not your nature. Those expressions of self, those emotions are not you. And when you feel those feelings coming over you, you say, wow, this doesn't feel good. This doesn't feel like me. And then there is that chemical release with that and so there might be a little excitement in the body, but those actual emotions aren't authentically you. Now when you are in that authentic, divine state, you're in the state of love, with appreciation, with gratitude. So you want to really look at that.

A few months ago, I got a little distressed with a friend who kept putting me off. I like called her 6 times and she said, I'll call you back, and she didn't call me back. That's just not normal and I got a little (00:39:07) and I said, you know I just feel angry, and I said it feeling angry. You said you want a friendship with me, but you keep putting me off. It didn't get a good response and it didn't feel good to me either. I mean like I expressed that I was upset and what I realized is that I could have gone a step further and look at what was going on with her life. And even though she offered a friendship, because I'm new in a new area and making friends with people, she might not have had the capacity. I could have muscle tested and seen that she didn't have the capacity. And then later, I was really looking at this because it's a rare moment when I express any anger. I've got friends who have said they've never seen me angry which is kind of an interesting thing. I have a steady, steady personality. But every once in a while, I do kind of 'Grrr.' So I was looking at that and I was talking to two relationship counsellors who both had PhD's in Psychology and our expert attachment therapists and they were saying that 96% of the time, when you express anger or you express rage or you express a strong dissatisfaction, 96% of the time, it yields a bad result which means you're not connecting with the person. You're not saying, hey I love you and I want to be more connected to you. What you're doing is creating separation. So when you look at that divine experience and staying really in your divine presence, it's really all about staying in the love space in gratitude, and appreciation, in validation, in honoring, in respect, in cherishing. There are many versions of your divine state, so we look to and seek to stay in the divine state.

Let's see here, oh 100% clear. Yes, yes, yes! Let's also since Cindy had mentioned being told that why would God want to talk to you, let's go ahead and clear for any of you who have been told that you're not lovable, or why would God know a person like you, or whatever you heard kind of on the negative, let's clear all the way from bloodline down to DNA and let's clear the actual episode which would be in trauma and it might show up in Atheist thought forms. So we'll do that from bloodline all the way to DNA, Lucifer stops and everything. We'll clear all of that.

And I certainly can relate to that. I have some stories myself. I was actually in the Basilica of Saint Mary's and I was trained as a classical singer and then I had thyroid cancer and the doctor who did the surgery or the anaesthesiologist who put a tube down my throat that was way too big for my little throat, and it wasn't very funny, they paralyzed my vocal chords. And so I had sang solos and sang in professional choirs up until age 24 when my vocal chords were paralyzed. And that was really, really like the end of the world for me. My whole identity was to be a singer. I was a singer and I lost my ability to sing. So a few years later, kneeling in prayer at the Basilica of Saint Mary's in Minneapolis, Mary appeared to me. I was kneeling kind of at the communion rail; it was during the day and there were people sitting in the basilica praying. It was small. I mean there weren't too many people. I'm at a big basilica and maybe 10 people, a handful people. Mary appeared to me and she said, sing. And I said, oh Mother Mary, I can't sing. I don't have a voice anymore. My vocal chords were paralyzed. She said sing and she was right in front of me and she kind of held a space for me and sang 'Ave' from the (00:44:00), not 'Ave Marie' but 'Ave.' And my voice sounded like an angel's voice and she asked me to sing more, so I sang a few other pieces in Latin. The whole cathedral became alive with angelic voices. It was like this (Sings) 'Ahhh...' and there was like a thousand voices singing in the cathedral and it was really spectacular. So the priest and the lady who probably locks up the cathedral or whatever come in and they're talking to me and they told me Mary doesn't live there. (Laughs) I was saying, well she's right here. Can't you see her? They were telling me that she does not live here, that she dies 2,000 years ago. So, there you go. So, we're just clearing any of that Atheist thought forms, anything that would have been put on you that would prevent from feeling loved and cherished by The Divine. You are so loved and cherished by The Divine. You are a very, very beautiful radiant being of life who is so loved and cared for.

Okay, "Do you have slides of those we're clearing?" I can just type those up quickly for you. That's easy enough to do. And then John said, "What do you do if you have negative emotions? If we don't express them, what do we do, we don't stuff our feelings." I would say 'this is not me' as the emotion comes up and pump away. Yes, I would say that that would be the best thing to do is 'this is not me.' And then when you get into your generous loving nature, you can think like where I had a woman putting me off, I could think, well what's really at the motivation of this? Why did she say she wanted to get together or she wanted to have lunch and I feel obligated to her? Why did she say that? What was behind that and then what's behind her putting me off? So if you can get into that place where you're not in the negative emotion and you just pump yourself clear and then look from love wisdom at what is actually going on here, you usually can figure it out. Like I could see she had some health issues and her husband wasn't paying attention to her, and there were a bunch of things that seemed to be a bigger priority than a new friendship. And then just looking at is she actually capable of being a friend of mine? That was another thing. But I think that you can get to that place if you just pump and say 'this is not me' when the negative emotion comes up.

Yay! And Yuko, hi! "I joined the class. I love the 'create clear divine connection'. I've been trying to heal my inner child wound from a long time but I still cannot hear the messages from my high self and I think it's because I still have doubt, so I look forward to this class so I can trust." Beautiful! Okay, well let me type up the things that we're clearing. Hang on one sec. I'll just get another slide here so you can just see as we go through.

Let's see, so far we've cleared the ability to... Okay, I think this covers what we've been doing so far. I hope that's helpful. And Tony, "When I was a child, I had a difficult family situation and became a very traditional Catholic. I was told that it was not okay, I wanted to become a monk, so I disconnected. I think it was somehow good because I went out of the traditional church, but I certainly lost some connection with The Divine and almost feel ashamed of being religious. Clearing some of this would really be helpful to me.” Great, we’ll do that Tony. And John, “At times when I got really connected, I experienced grace and miracles. I took the Parasites and Abuse Class, but have the experience of attacks continuing. Amongst pain, exhaustion, negative feelings, etcetera, they bring attacks that make it hard to concentrate and feel a connection with The Divine, love and passion” Yes, I understand that John. For some people who really got a lot of spiritual parasites, it takes patience. It may take a whole year and I think the best thing I could recommend for you is to stay balanced, to continue to say this is not me, to move towards loving behaviors, get out in nature a lot, and keep pumping.

That sounds good then, you’re right on the right track. Beautiful and we’ll just keep pumping here. We’ll do another song. This is ‘Goodness and Mercy.’

[Singing]

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life*

Let’s do that together.

[Singing]

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever and ever, Amen
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever and ever, Amen*

*All that I am and all I’ll ever be
Is expanding from this mystery
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever and ever, Amen*

*All that I want and all I’ll ever be
Is flowing from this loving sea
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever and ever, Amen*

That was kind of fun. Okay and I see some more. John said, "Including changing my speech which is fantastic. I'm hoping the Wealth Class will manifest money so I can have a personal session with you to accelerate and finish clearing parasites." That sounds great John. That's a good plan. Okay, let's see where we're at. Ah, 100% clear on this. Let's go on. What we will be addressing next is who and what is God?

One of the ideas and concepts of God is oneness or an omnipresence or the quantum field, where God exists in everything and is always. This beautiful poetry, it's actually a piece of music about God being in everything and everywhere.'

[Singing]

Cleave the wood and there you'll find me.

Lift the stone and there I'll be.

Cleave the wood and there you'll find me.

Lift the stone and there I'll be.

In your yearning, in your calling, in your longing you forgot.

All around you and inside you, there is no place I am not.

Cleave the wood. Lift the stone.

Cleave the wood. Lift the stone.

There is no place I am not.

So God existing in oneness, existing in everything, in all of ourselves. Alright, so that's one interpretation and the ones which we've already gone through, the one remembered a time when time was not and all that was, was what could not be. When who was, was what, and I was we. And so this poem, this piece that we read towards the beginning of the training was really all about how we started as not individuals, as not as individual human spirits but as one being. And even before we were the we, we were the I am, and that we all existed as one. And then we broke off into pieces and we became the we, and then we spun out even further and became individuated and individual selves. So it's one of the interpretations of how we in our divine nature became smaller parts. And as we became those smaller parts, we became influenced by things in our environment, by words, and beings, and thoughts. "The text 'cleave the wood' is actually from the Thomas gospel where Jesus says in the Thomas gospel happened not to be included in the bible." Interesting, thank you for sharing that Tony. I appreciate that.

And then as we look at other interpretations of God, God as supreme being or father, mother God, you are a child of the most high God. In many Christian traditions or religious traditions, God exists as a being, a supreme being, might be the protector of this domain, planet earth and definitely the father figure is very much part of the Christian imagery. But sweetly in Christian imagery, there's a song, 'Children of the heavenly father, safely in his bosom gather. Nestling bird nor star in heaven, such a refuge it was given. Neither life nor death shall ever, from the Lord his children sever, on to them his grace he showed and their sorrows all he know of.' And they describe God in this beautiful song as a mother really, even though they used the father, safely in his bosom gather. And nesting bird, which is of course female also, and so being of both male and female energies.

(Singing)

Children of the heavenly father,

Safely in his bosom gather.

Nestling bird nor star in heaven,

Such a refuge it was given.

Neither life nor death shall ever,

From the Lord his children sever.

On to them his grace he showed,

And their sorrows all he know of

Okay and it looks like John might have a question here. John, "Regarding continuing to clear, don't know what to clear since having experienced of can't muscle test starting in 1997, feeling subtle energy (01:50:00) Reiki flowing and other things stopped. Where they parts of the brain shut off by parasites?" Let's come back to a conversation about that. So if you've gone through a period where you had an ability and then your ability became too lost, it could have been something with spiritual parasites. That is entirely possible. It could have been something like an implant or a holographic insert, some permeation of something from a spiritual parasite, pest, guide or guest. So that will be something for all of us to look at with the whole group, and it's a small group, there's actually I think 9 students in this training. Let me just check because I think that would be a wonderful next clearing for the whole group is to see what of those left behind mechanisms... Mechanisms, definitely. Holographic inserts, definitely. Permeations, definitely. Anybody got implants for this? Implants, okay and seeds, one person.

Okay, let's go ahead and really specifically work on clearing those things that have been left behind by spiritual parasites that have prevented you from experiencing a deeper connection with The Divine. It will be the doorknob for all the kind of implants, and mechanisms, and holographic inserts. So it's kind of like you're turning a doorknob like that and I'm just going to go a lot faster than that, like that. Ooh. (Laughs) Well John, I guess you want me to just test but this class is about divine connection, so let's see. It's about 50% clear John. And you know, I noticed that bloodline seems to be problematic in a lot of issues. When something hasn't really cleared successfully, you really want to check to see if bloodline is at the cause of it, the clan energy can make such an impression that it will cause you to not have what you need to have shift. So definitely we've been checking that.

"Being in gratitude would automatically bring more grace." Yes, that's true. "However, the experience of gratitude is very rare. How can we be in gratitude more often?" Cindy you know in the wealth class, we have an assignment and you might take this assignment on which is every morning, when you're doing your planning of the day, write a list of 10 things you're grateful for and really feel each one. I'm so grateful for this... I'm so grateful for this...

I had a little event here last night. It's to help the poorest people in the world and also people sold into human slavery and I didn't have a big turnout because I don't know lots of people in the area yet and it's the Holidays, whatever. But I spent time with each person who came and then I texted each one of them and let them know how much I appreciated them coming and what their presents meant to me. And I think that you can actually do that, just be deeply appreciative and grateful for everything that comes into your world and make a practice of it. You can start by each morning as you start your day, writing a list and really holding that list and saying, thank you God. Thank you for the people helping me do this. Thank you for this class. Thank you for my good health today. Thank you for that wonderful bubble bath that I just took. Thank you for the wonderful DVD where I just worked out. You know, just start really noticing that there is so much to be grateful for.

Oh good John, I'm so happy. "I do the daily but I don't write it down. I don't really feel the gratitude though. Why is gratitude blocked?" Let's see, that would be an interesting thing too. John for you, gratitude looks like trauma. It looks like trauma in past lives. Maybe you were being really grateful and you got punished for being grateful; that could be. It could be that. It tests as trauma, so if you clear trauma, I think that you might actually be more in the presence of gratitude. Is that something, because we're looking at divine nature and divine connection, maybe we should just add that to our list of clearings that we do, is to be able to really stand in gratitude, in appreciation, in love, in validation. Let's do that. The sun is getting brighter. Let's see. Yes, that sort of does it.

"Feeling into things is not easy. Would doing this exercise eventually also bring gratitude and feeling?" Yes, I think that it would and will. We'll clear blocks to gratitude as we're doing clearings right now. Let's see. We're about 70% through on the clearing we are working on and then we'll go into the gratitude one. Okay, let's so back here.

And in Christianity, there's a trinity, there's of a God and three and yet it is monotheism. This isn't really a class on theological -- it's not a theological discourse. But in Christianity, the three parts of God are considered one, are considered monotheistic and I think we probably don't need to actually go into that today. And then our God nature is not separate from our divinity. God living in me as one.

We're just going to continue to clear. I'm going to read from "The interior castles of Saint Theresa of Avila."

'The great importance of proceeding carefully in trying to describe this prayer of union, I wish to make a comparison with the sacrament of matrimony. For the union of the soul with God is one of love. Everything about the union is pure and entirely spiritual, very delicate and gentle. But the Lord can make the soul deeply conscious of this love's operation. While this union is not yet spiritual betrothal, we may liken it to that of two people who are about to be betrothed. They discuss their susceptibility to each other and plan to meet so that they can learn to appreciate each other better. So it is here, the contract has been drawn up, the soul is happy and determined to do the will of her spouse in every way. His majesty knowing quite well that this is so desires that the soul shall get to know him better and that she shall be united with him. All this takes a very short time. The giving and taking come to an end and the soul sees who the spouse is that she is to take. This could not be understood a thousand years by the ordinary use of the senses and faculties. After this one visit, the spouse leaves the soul worthier to join hands with him. The soul is inflamed with love for him. If however through neglect, the heart is set on anything other than herself, everything is lost. So every effort should be made to withdraw from occasions of sin, for in this state, the betrothal not yet having been made, the soul is not strong enough.'

And then it goes on and she actually because she's very steeped in Catholicism, talks about the devil, that we could say spiritual parasites. The devil will use every means to prevent the betrothal, so that might be spiritual parasites.

'Afterwards, when he sees the soul completely surrendered to the spouse, knowing he will be the loser. I know persons of very high degree of spirituality whom the devil with great subtlety has won back to himself - on other words, spiritual parasites. He will marshal all powers of hell to win one soul like this is to win the whole multitude. Think of the harm done to the devil's cause by saints, like Saint Ursula, Dominic, Francis, Ignatius. Remember that all they did was not to frustrate the divine betrothal. There are so few who wish to receive the Lord's favor. That is still necessary that we should receive them.'

Well, I love her first entry about how the sacredness of the union and how it is very much like a marriage partner when you're connecting with the divine and that when you bring your heart, the connection is made with love. So when you're not feeling love and gratitude -- let's see, can we move on to that? Yes, we can. Alright, so we're going to be moving on to being able to feel more readily gratitude and love and we're going to do that clearing again this whole list that we created up here. There we go. So in this case we're going to clear being able to feel gratitude easily and be able to feel love easily. Let's see now, I'm sorry. Feeling into things -- that I answered. The doorknob is done and we're back to pumping. What we removed there was the implants and things like that, so we did a doorknob pumping with the implants. We did that for an hour. Now we're doing just the regular pump for feeling gratitude easily and feeling love easily.

"How does clearing the different levels of Hawkins's scale affect divine connection. If you are focused, would it be clearer also to clear bloodline? I have been doing that for years before God brought you to me and I was doing what you called the devil pump, not knowing it was a quantum feeling." That's a good question. I think that you can clear your energy. It makes you more powerful as a healer, but if you're not clearing your love channels, you'll just have more spiritual acuity or power. So I think divine connection and we will actually be working some on raising your energy vibration too, but divine connection really is all about finding that love, gratitude, bliss, charities state that you can remain in. That's the access to God. "I guess God did mean to do that double pump while doing clearing. That's great. And to clarify, if you just focus on clearing levels of Hawkins's scale, will it clear bloodline attraction of parasites?" No, it won't. I get that that isn't true. "Will you be having more live parasite abuse classes soon? Didn't see that on your calendar. The next opportunity for that would be in the Diamond Class John. I think there's a Diamond short and we do a day on parasites in the Diamond short."

Then also as we're pumping to clear, we're looking at accessing God, The Divine in nature. I'm going to read from Rumi.

'I was dead, then alive. Weeping, then laughing. The power of love came into me and I became fierce like a lion, then tender like the evening star. He said, you're not mad enough. You don't belong in this house. I went wild and had to be tied up. He said, still not wild enough to stay with us. I broke through another layer into joyfulness. He said, that's still not enough. I died. He said, you're a clever little man, full of fantasy and doubting. I plucked out my feathers and became a fool. He said, now you're a candle for this assembly. But I'm no candle; look, I'm scattered smoke. He said, you are the sheep, the guide. But I'm not a teacher; I have no power. He said, you already have wings. I cannot give you wings. But I wanted his wings. I felt like some flightless chicken. Then, new events said to me, don't move, a sublime generosity is coming towards you and old love said, stay with me. I said I will. You are the fountain of sunlight. I am the willow shadow on the ground. You make my raggedness silky. The soul at dawn like darkened water that slowly begins to say, thank you, thank you. Then at sunset again, Venus gradually changes into the moon and then the whole night sky, this comes of smiling back at your smile. The chess master says nothing, other than moving the silent chess pieces. That I am part of the ploys of this game makes me amazingly happy,'

And the second one here...

'The Lord of beauty enters the soul as a man walks into an orchard in spring. Come into me that way. Light the lamp in the eye of Joseph, hear Jacob's sadness. Though you never left, come and sit down here and ask, why are you so confused? Like a fresh idea in an artist's mind, you fashion things before they come into being. You sweep the floor like the man who keeps the door away. When you brush the form clean, it becomes what it truly is. You guard your silence perfectly like a water bag that doesn't leak. You live where Shams lives, because your heart donkey was strong enough to take you there.'

Those were poetry from Jalal Ad-din Rumi, Sufi Mystic from the 13th Century. So how many of you have experienced The Divine in nature? Who had gone hiking and just been really wowed by something magnificent in nature and or just felt like you had rebooted and become one with God in nature? I know yesterday I was hiking during a sun shower and there was an incredible rainbow and I actually was hiking right to the end of it. It was so close to me. It was right on the mountain that I was hiking on. It was amazing.

"I forgot if you answered this regarding continuing to clear. Don't know what to clear since having experienced can't muscle test." "Have had periods of high vibrations for some time and always followed by lengthy period, months or over of plunged into attacks and darkness." "Yes..." Cindy says, "I have experienced especially in mountain places. We have a place called God's Window." Oh my goodness, that sounds amazing. That's spectacular. That sounds amazing.

We're about 83% clear on being able to experience easily gratitude and being able to easily experience love, so we're about 82% clear. We're almost there. And so this is one definitely direct way in is to go into nature and experience God in nature, where that divine connection can be often rapidly experienced.

This is part of my training while I was working with the Sufi's. And it was inspired by Jalal Ad-din Rumi. It's very short.

'In all times and in all religions, the mystics have been revealed the essence of The Divine as pure love. It is to that beloved divinity we aspire. There is one God, Creator, Supreme Being who exists in everything. Everywhere my eyes reach, God is there. In the wood, in the stone, in the air, and in the water, God in the beauty of nature. (01:25:00). In the flowers, fruits, and trees, there is one divine spark in each of us. From this divine spark, this flame of God we are united. There is no separation that exists outside the mind's limitation. We are one with the grandeur and majesty of Allah. Love enters, separation melts away. Come enter the abode of peace. Let go of all thought of separation and merge me with me in divine consciousness. There is no you, there is no I. Just this sweet longing to merge blissfully with The Divine. The beloved waits at your door, waits for you to open your precious heart. Do not be disturbed by the coming and goings of others, as you remember your own beautiful heart space, thousands of others will awaken with you.'

Okay and Tony, "Many of my peak experiences are related to walking. When I just walk, there is nothing but walking. Walking in nature helps me a lot." Fantastic, Tony. Okay and I think we're done with that clearing. We'll move on now to connecting with the divine in our cells and in our DNA. When we are in the diamond class, we work on clearing our God DNA, but there are actually two strands of DNA out of the 46 that are unique God strands of DNA and the presence of God or divinity in our cells can be activated and very present. I think we look at some of the things that have altered and most people don't experience and one of them is the problem that the pleasure from the cells has been removed, so we would want to restore pleasure to the cells and then activate the aspect of God in our cells and in our DNA. So let's do a clearing and an activation for restoring pleasure in our cells, the pleasure center in the cells and also activating the presence of God in our DNA. You could just pump for that. We'll clear the bloodline down to DNA and we'll also just be also really restoring the cell itself. So anything that would prevent pleasure from being experienced in the cell and also anything that would prevent us from experiencing our God nature in our DNA.

This is good. It has lots of good things. Especially we're in the holidays; I think it's really nice to activate this love space or this space of gratitude and appreciation. You might notice maybe doing some volunteer work in a soup kitchen or doing some shopping for some underprivileged children might also help with the gratitude. My event last night and the young women who were at the event were talking. One is in extended foster care and she's 19 and her friends are rescued from prostitution. 1 in 6 runaways gets sold into human slavery. Anyway, we were sitting there hearing their stories and my friend from Trinidad said, you know it really gives me an attitude adjustment when I hear their stories and I realize how good I have it. I'm just so grateful and feel so appreciative of the life I do have. And so sometimes being around people who don't have as much as you kind of makes things right or clarifies the who you really are and what you have to be grateful for. And I don't know if you attend a church, our church had these little angels hanging in the back and I'm going shopping today for a 7 year old girl and an 11 year old boy and a 6 year old girl, so I got two girls and a boy. I'm doing Christmas shopping for 3 kids. There's something really joyful and I feel grateful and excited and happy to be contributing and making their Christmas better, because it makes my Christmas better too. So sometimes doing something like that really gets the joy and the gratitude and appreciation going.

We're about 40% through on this activation. Again, we're working on bringing the ability of the body to have pleasure in the cells and also on bringing the experience of being able to feel the presence of God in our DNA. Maybe we should do another song. Let's see. Let's see if there's another one that might be good for right now while we're working on the cells. Oh yes, this one would work. Let's do 'In the Stillness.' Okay, well just this one on this side, 'In the Stillness.'

[Singing]

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

*In the stillness, In the quiet
In the open heart, there I am*

*I am essence, I am breath
I am light of God, I am, I am*

Yes, let's do angels call as we pump for pleasure. And this goes...

[Singing]

*Angels call while we are sleeping
Riding through the waves of dreams*

We can do that.

[Singing]

Angels call while we are sleeping

Riding through the waves of dreams

*Keeping safe our mortal bodies
While we play in Astral scenes
Keeping safe our mortal bodies
While we play in Astral scenes*

*Beams of light flow from their bodies
Showing us a glimmering mirror
Beams of light flow from their bodies
Showing us a glimmering mirror*

*Waking to the world of wonder
Leaves behind all doubt and fear
Waking to the world of wonder
Leaves behind all doubt and fear*

'I am the Altar' is wonderful.

*[Singing]
I am the altar, I am the lamb
I am receptive, I am, I am*

Let's do that again.

*[Singing]
I am the altar, I am the lamb
I am receptive, I am, I am*

And then it's just the same melody.

*[Singing]
I am Sophia, I am dark night
I am the low ghost, I am delight*

*I am communion, body and blood
I am forgiveness, I am the love*

*I am the mother, I am the son
I am the father, I am as one*

*I am the incense, fragrant desire
I am the ashes, burned by the fire*

*I am the innocent, I am the wrong
I am the delicate, I am the strong*

*I am the altar, I am the lamb
I am receptive, I am, I am*

This is going really well, you guys. It's 80% clear. If you're just starting to feel some lightness in your body, please let me know what shifts you're feeling. Again, we're clearing to be able to feel pleasure in the body, in the cells, and then also to be able to experience your divine nature or God in your DNA. Those are the two things that we're working on right now and we're over 80% and I'm seeing just a lot of light flooding in. It feels wonderful.

"I just feel like the attacks when they finally stop, I should feel all of this from today." Yes. Okay, Cindy is also having the experience of not feeling much different yet. We might need to do some pumping on bloodline and Lucifer stops for you guys to really feel it. Let's clear that - bloodline, and holographic inserts, Lucifer stops, seeds, implants. Okay, so a few more things that maybe there are some mechanisms in you that aren't you -- obviously, none of this is you, that are preventing you from feeling this. I'm feeling a tremendous amount of light in my body as we're pumping away here. It's feeling pretty amazing, so I want you guys to feel that too. "I often feel and as well right now a lot of impatience, not being able to focus, distracting myself which is bothering me." Okay. And John, "If money doesn't manifest in the wealth class to work privately, do you have advanced students who can recommend?" The Diamond Class would be... "I can't afford the Diamond Class." Okay. The Diamond Class which is the short is 1700 with a payment plan, so you might check into that. That would be what I would recommend right now. (Laughs)

Okay, let's see. Cindy, I get that you're 40% improved and Sharon, 70% improved. Sharon has said, "Feeling light, and bubbly, and happy, joy, and love. I cannot stop smiling." Wonderful and there's even more to go Sharon, so that's fantastic. And then Tony, you're about 20% improved and John, 12% improved. I can see that if we can clear some of these stuff like the implants and the holographic inserts and bloodline, I think that we're going to have a huge shift for the entire class. And since we're small enough class, I can keep an eye on each one of you. And Roxanne, I think you're also on the phone line and you've got a 60% improvement. So let's use this last remaining 15 minutes to really work on clearing holographic inserts, implants, seeds, mechanisms, permeations, anything that is preventing you from really experiencing the divine. I think John you might be asking about why so little, oh improvement, why so little improvement. Everybody is making improvement and then I've already said why so little, so we're going to work on implants and holographic inserts and things like that. So you've already declared how you're struggling with spiritual parasites and that will definitely slow down some of the transitions. You're welcome. Let's see, perfect. Yay, Sharon! Yay!

And as we pump, I have another beautiful book of inspiration here and this one is from Rusty Berkus and it's perfect actually while we're working on clearing all of this stuff and then we've also been working on being able to experience pleasure and joy in our bodies.

'Calling all children hiding out in their grown-up bodies, who long to be joyful, funful, freeful, come out, come out wherever you are and play now in the now sun of your life. How lovely to know that you don't have to be perfect. All you need to do is be. The beauty of one's life can only be measured by the quality of love in it. Life feels best being around folks who love and accept themselves. Pretty soon all that good stuff rubs out on us and we feel good to be around.'

I love this book. And this one is another one of hers. It's from 'The Olden Days.' I hope it's still out. And for those of you who are like, oh I should be farther than I am, as we pump, keep pumping.

'Wherever you are in this moment is exactly where you are supposed to be, no matter how things may seem to appear. When you know you are doing your very best within the circumstances of existence, applaud yourself. Above all, forgive yourself and forgive everyone else. There is no one to compare yourself too and no one to compete with. There never was. When the rose and lotus are side by side, is one more beautiful than the other? When you awaken to who and what you are, everyone automatically awakens to who and what you are, without a spoken word. Sometimes it takes great effort to discover that life was meant to be meaningless. What we wouldn't give to know that it's okay to not feel okay, and to know that it's okay to feel powerful, magnificent, deserving and even extra-ordinary. How would it be to know that when life doesn't seem to be working, it is still working perfectly? Did you know that you can experience love, pain, joy, anger, death and rebirth all at the same time and still be perfectly sane? All earthly pain is due to our inability to release that which needs to be free.'

And that is exactly what we're doing right now. We're releasing that which needs to be free, that which does not serve us and no longer belongs to us.

'When you release what needs to be free, you are freed in the process. Would you be willing to get out of your own way and let the miracles that are yours by divine right come into your life? Question, since you are here to remember who you are, why have you forgotten? Answer, perhaps you have lived another's dream and not your own.'

And as we're clearing here the mechanisms, the holographic inserts, I drew 4 cards from the Bhakti decks, so they're just one word in Sanskrit. The first word I drew was honor and I think that as we clear and you are able to step into your own power, your own center as you clear away that which is not you, spiritual parasites, or mechanisms, or thought forms or anything, you can stand in your own honor and that allows you to honor others. Honor is part of cherishing, isn't it? Honor and respect and cherishing, they're all part of that divine nature when you stand in your honor and you stand honoring others. The second card that came up was self-effort and I think one of the things to know is that when you're stepping into clearing yourself and being unique and being different, clearings don't necessarily have been instantaneous even though we'd like them to. Part of the reason for that is that you've had many, many lifetimes of problem energy and so if you've had a lot of spiritual parasites and a lot of different lives, it's going to take you a little time to really clean that up, and so self-effort is part of that process.

Vitality is the third card I pulled. Vitality for each of you wanting to bring vitality into your life, into your body. Vitality again is part of joy, isn't it? When you're feeling down and out, you don't have vitality. When you are feeling overwhelmed and sluggish, that vitality isn't there. Vitality is there when you're in your God state, when you're in that divine connection. And divine connection is a multiple -- it's experienced in a multitude of ways. So if you're experiencing love, and gratitude, and appreciation, and charity, and cherishing, you're experiencing divine connection because you are from the inside out, you are in your divine nature. So the more you are in your divine nature, the more you experience that divine connection. So vitality is definitely an outer sign of divine connection where all things are right with the world.

And finally, sensitivity. That was the fourth card I drew. Interesting, sensitivity comes up because we want to look at you and be sensitive and kind and aware to what you're going through and what's shifting and changing in you, what's different, what needs yet to be shifted. You'll want to enter into this week. We have 7 days before our second training. Our second training, we'll be working on raising your energy vibration. We'll be working on your crown chakra. We'll be working on your halo. So more of the nuts and bolts of the mechanisms that allow you to connect with The Divine, so the energetic and spiritual parts of your blueprint and we'll be fine-tuning all of that.

So in the meantime, what I'd love to see is for you to just be pumping; to pump yourself clear. And like we were talking about, when there's something that's anger or stress or you're frustrated, 'this is not me' and pump. And then when you get to the place where you feel pretty clear and loving, then look at what was going on with me and what was that? And you can whether you have the ability to muscle test or not muscle test -- by the way, if muscle testing is a challenge, you might want to clear bloodline and DNA before muscle testing and then you might want to clear holographic inserts in your hands, and we do that in the Diamond Class. We look at any kind of blocks to muscle testing, so the Diamond Class might be a good place to train with that also.

We're about 60% clear, so we're doing good. We're doing good. Let's see. Yes, I think that would be good John. And John, I sent someone the chart while I was teaching. Did I send you the chart on spiritual parasites and implants and stuff? Were you the one that I sent it to? If not, send me an email and I'll send you that chart so you can just go down the chart and clear what's on there, since you've taken the class already. "Please request what we're clearing now." Okay, good. Alright, so as you remember, all of you remember we're clearing implants, holographic imprints, seeds, mechanisms, permeations - all this stuff that kind of gets in the way of you experiencing the shifts with divine connection, so all the mechanism kind of stuff that's stuck in you and that doesn't belong in you. When I was reading the thing with clearing is that, I know it should be faster and some of you like Sharon is getting it faster, but some of you have had lifetimes of this muck and also some of you have language for a lifetime. I have a headache, or my knees can't get better, or my hands hurt, my head hurts, and you're constantly whether you're doing it to yourself or you're telling others, that ahs to stop for the shifts to take place. The inner dialogue and the outer dialogue has to shift. And so if you've just shifted the inner and outer dialogue like a week ago, it's not going to change overnight. It's going to take time, so I just want you to be patient and gentle with yourself. Be sensitive with yourself and just allow the shifts to happen in their own time. It's good that you want to have shifts.

It's wonderful that you want to have the shifts. It's wonderful, but wanting and desiring things, you can't force things to go faster than they could go. Sometimes it's also sitting with, what am I getting out of this, and what am I learning from this, and why did I bring this into my life, and what can I -- like it might be that you never, ever, ever have this experience again, that you operate your life in a much cleaner way and that you operate with more discipline and that you recognize what's you and not you, this could be if you are one of the people who is struggling right now, it could be a huge growth period for you to really be directed and directed to your inner awakening. A lot of times people use this kind of a challenge when you have slower shifting to awaken you, to really like have it be a struggle so that you can make that leap, that spiritual leap.

Okay, "How much longer do we need to clear this?" You know, I would like to see you work on this for 4 hours. I think that this would be really good. So during the week if you can, just go ahead and keep pumping on clearing this. 4 hours would be wonderful. And John, "Is all the clearing you cover in your classes necessary to have enlightenment?" Well, that's up to you. I think enlightenment, I'm not sure that you can experience enlightenment if you have a lot of negative programming and things that are holding you back, problems with your bloodline, I don't look at it that way but you could; you could do all the clearings for enlightenment. And I would think that you would have eventually that didn't have spiritual parasites in it, so enlightenment could be really enjoyed. Yes, I didn't know that was a measure, but it could be. It's not my measure though.

Alright my dears, we have come to the end of our class today. I love you. You did a wonderful job. We'll see you next week and some of you, I'll see later in the week in 'Illumination and How to Meditate.' Just have a blessed and beautiful holiday and I'll see you soon. God bless everyone. Bye-bye!
