

Your Divine Human Blue Print

The realm of spirit activity

Although this does not relate to the blueprint of restoration, this knowledge is vital for some peoples complete healing as not all break down or malfunction in the body is related in injury, illness and or malfunction. More times then you would expect an aggravating factor for disorder in the human body is some sort of spirit activity not related to the human spirit to human body connection.

Kathy W. is an amazing woman with a wealth of talents one of her greatest talents is that of connection. She is fun loving and truly a joy to be around, however when we first met, little of that fun loving nature shown through.

I was in the mastermind group of Michael Ports Book Yourself Solid group, sharing ideas, and cheering my team members on. After the conference call ended I received and urgent email message for Darlene, one of my peers in the group asking for help. She had been with her friend Kathy the night before, and she believed Kathy, her dear friend might die.

I responded to Darlene and urged her to have Her friend contact me as soon as she could. Within three hours the call came in. Rinnnnnnngggg. 'Hello, Julie Renee', 'Hi this is Kathy I am a friend of Darlene's, and I really need your help.' That was the being of a relatively short intake call. What I discovered rapidly that her life force was at 2% and Kathy was not going to be able to hold on to her body much longer. She had made a valiant effort, but because of a the deck stacked against her from a dark mysterious Attack, apparently from inside her body.

Her symptoms included Crazy severe high blood pressure, feet feeling like stones, numbness in legs and feet, swelling bloating and malfunction of the lymphatic system, digestive issues and overall helplessness.

I urged her she could not wait, if she were wanting to stay alive, we would need to begin our healings that day. And like that healing Kathy became my vocation for 4 months, multiple times a week, removing and restoring from her body the impediments to her health vitality and longevity.

What surprised me was the amount of entities, spirits, demons, evil spirits, trans-mortals, and spiders/snakes occupied a body she no longer had much access to. She responded well to the healings and cellular neo genesis, but every single time we worked together I removed spirits and entities from her systems glands and organs. We were definitely seeing real improvement as her body was beginning to rebuild itself from the inside out, and the attack began to subside.

Having an infestation of entities can be considered a spiritual illness of the physical body. The entities are actually attacking the physical body, not the human spirit typically however some types of non human spirits can cause problems for human spirit.

We cleared an average of 7 'things' weekly, sometimes more for a grand total of 79 entities, evil spirits, demons, trans -mortals and spider/snakes.

The day came when we addressed the ongoing misery in her belly. Kathy said; "I'm not crazy, I literally can see my stomach move and here voices coming from my belly."

I had recently seen Sylvia Brown speak to a TV audience. A woman stood up and said that she felt like her dead husband was occasionally moaning from her stomach, and Sylvia, dismissed her saying 'don't be ridiculous sprits don't inhabit the body like that so put it out of your mind.' This is paraphrasing but that was the essence of her communication to this unfortunate woman.

In my research I have found quite the opposite. That as much as 20% of the time when illness and physical malfunction are present, there is so negative spirit activity making the situation worse.

I said to Kathy; " let me take a look and see what is going on. We first did a physical healing on the lower abdomen and intestines, than yes there were indeed negative spirits in her belly as she suspected.

What we discovered was a nest of Three demonic spirits in her belly. I had seen them aon several occasion, but this would be the first time I was going to remove them from a persons body.

I was fearless.. I grounded each of the demons, who appeared black and were attempting to frighten me with a variety of scary apparitions, however, I shut down my view screen internally to a greater affect, so I was just focusing on the black blob I had grounded to the center of the earth.

Since I was not easily frightened with my inner vision, the demonic beings pulled another magic trick out of the hat.

I love flowers and one of the ways I created the sanctuary space of healing in my home is to surround myself with bouquets of fresh flowers. Fresh cut roses have been known to last up to 7 weeks in my living room due to a kind of flower magic I learned during my time in India.

The day I cleared 3 demons from Kathy's belly, I had 3 large vases filled with fresh cut flowers. As I continued to remove the demons essence from Kathy, having locked down the other two in a similar way, I noticed a putrid smell.

The water the flowers were in was being transformed into a kind of swamp water, and for special effect they (the demons) had actually managed to get the swamp water to bubble. The air was becoming permeated with putrefied rotten smelling swamp water. For the next 30 minutes, I unaltered continued on with my mission of assisting Kathy in returning to vibrant health, which in this case meant removing 3 demonic spirits. And at the end of the healing for the day, Kathy had been freed of demonic possession.

The flowers were handled with care. When I hung up the phone I brought the vases into the kitchen, pouring the putrefied water down the drain and with care rinsed the stems of all the flowers making a fresh cut an inch up on the stem for them to drink in the fresh crystal clear water they were returned to.

I lost no flowers as a casualty to the demons magic show. However, if I had believed in the fear and scar that the demons were projecting towards me, my belief would have imagined the flowers being attacked were going to die. The flowers would have picked up on my thoughts and been compelled to die.

Understand that the demonic reach is largely predicated on how much fear they can get rolling in the environment. Since most humans do not comprehend the power of their thoughts especially negative ones, they are less than diligent about maintaining a clean healthy environment in their mental patterns and images. Love is a good place to start.

One premise I have operated with for a lifetime is that I am the stronger when it comes to me or a thing that has no body. This is my realm, not theirs. I have surpassed 100 other human spirits who do not have a body, and I am managing to hold onto a body regardless of the illness and toxic exposure I experienced at an earlier age. I am wonder woman to their insignificant bug status.

Allow me to introduce you to my cockroach philosophy. Entities, evil spirits, spiders and snakes, obnoxious aliens all come under the cockroach category. Essentially they are for me no more than a troublesome bug that has little power if I give them none. I don't fight with them argue with them or engage with. I create no battle, nothing to push against or tap into to access my energy.

The secret to experiencing power beyond anything out of your body is knowing that "I've got the Power!"

Later in this chapter I will spell out for you exactly what you can do step by step to clear away beings that are interfering with your health or the health of clients or loved ones.

Kathy's second big clearing happened two months later. We had done phenomenal work together over the previous three months and there was now a real future for Kathy and her beloved husband Arthur. With out a doubt she was getting much better, really by leaps and bounds her life and life force coming back rapidly.

It was a Tuesday as I remember, and we had been working on reversing the nerve diminishment in her leg. And there it was the first of five huge beings using part of Kathy's body as a portal to the human realm. I have only ever encounter these beings twice in the thousands of healings I have done for people through the years, so understand this is a rare occurrence.

I was working on the nerves in the leg, when Kathy's body gave the direction the next healing would be in the lower right area of the intestines just above the pelvic cradle.

I identified a being quite large rooted into Kathy. A kind of spirit I had never seen before. I was able to identify it as a trans mortal being, who was using Kathy body to leap between it's own realm to the human realm. These spirits did give rise to a moment of anxiety as they were like an 8 foot brick wall able to resist my clearing techniques, and jump between realms in an instant. But I was there in service to assist a fellow human out of the and Then I got, this is a new hybrid cockroach and I would have to move a little faster come up with a new approach, and I would in the end, because I am wonder woman (in my own mind of course) I would surpass the obstacles related to Kathy's full restoration and healing.

They did want to talk; get me involve with there shenanigans. In response I shut off the auditory reception while I continued to work on one after another, till none remained.

Be clear no being, entity or spirit has a right to invade inhabit, become a squatter, haunt, or possess a human being. Period. Any conversation that might ensue about why they need to be there is moot, because the human who owns the body does not want them there. Yu can invite them to leave permanently, and they will turn you down because no human has ever called them on it and they have gotten cozy in these new digs, but f they don't leave, the next step is to in neutrality begin the spirit obliteration process.

The trans- mortals 5 in all gave me some valuable information about spirits jumping between realms using a human body as a landing. They had developed a way to leave an anchor or a future leap into the body. It was a marker of a kind, and I realized they were not governed by our phenomenon of time passing. To fully remove the impact of these creatures troubling Kathy I needed to successfully locate and remove all the anchor's in her body that they were using.

It took a number of healings for me to find all the anchors, as it was like finding a needle in a haystack, and until I comprehended what it was I was searching for , the search just played on as a research project.

Their ability to break free from my grounding technique which would hold a being in stasis unable to move, while I removed it was also a learning.

What I was able to accomplish with these beings was to remove a lot of their information and permanently prevent them from returning to Kathy's body. I am certain these five trans mortals have never ventured back into this human realm, though perhaps a few others have. Where they came from? How does the third dimension sound? Well if you enjoy science fiction then this sounds plausible, if not, receive what your mind will let you take in and let go of the rest.

The occupation of trans mortals reminds me of an entirely different occupation, that of a house in San Anselmo, owned by a family in Real Estate for generations, they had a couple rooms in the house that were basically unusable.

I will never forget the day I was called into this home, I was running a fever, not feeling to well, however I had said I would help these folks and I am a woman of my word. The house was only 18 blocks from the home I was residing in, so it was easy enough to pop I on them, and I thought no problem, I'll do a quick ghost busting, spend 20 or 30 minutes and be on my way back home to rest.

I was welcomed at the door by Alice, who in proper fashioned showed me into a wonderful historic Victorian home giving me a proper tour of the house room by room. I was crashing quickly as the spirit activity was off the charts and a strain on my physical body, just being in the house exhausted me.

She pointed out 2 specific rooms where there had been a lot of spirit activity and haunting types of events. The home had been in the family for 3 generations, and those rooms were virtually not used as they were unpleasant to be in.

In my initial research I discovered a portal from the underworld in two locations in the home, that did match up with the locations of the families haunting experiences. While there I estimated the number of spirits of numerous varieties coming in and out of the house on a daily basis reached up to 300 per day.

When I started sharing my findings with Alice, she was neither shocked or surprised. The underworld portals were new news to her, but the activity, and desire to take back the house, wanting to use the rooms that sat decorated with furniture, but never used, had become a strong desire of the current owners. So two generations of family had allowed the squatters, not as Alice and her fiancé were setting up home looking forward to raising a family in the family home wanted them out.

I dealt with this in a different way then you might expect,. Taking on clearing hundreds of spirits was not going to work for my ailing physical body, so I devised a way to move the two portals, well away from the home and from the local community to a place away from human activity.

After successfully moving the portals and filling in sealing off any identifying features of the old well used portals, I then went room to room and cleared out all remaining spirits and entities. By the time I was in the last room, which was vacant, I was sitting on the bur bur carpeted floor, exhausted beyond belief two hours and 15 minutes after arriving I wrapped up.

This house was under siege, and the humans who lived in it were unable to use rooms in their own home because of this circumstance. Think of it possibly 110 years some misfortunate builder built a home on a portal to the underworld, and because of these circumstances it is likely the family secret meant the house would never be sold to someone outside to family.

A similar, but lessor circumstance is found in a San Rafael family home, the house that Robbie inherited. Robbie and Christy were newly weds fixing up their home excited about the future, when Christy started noticing some very real movement in the home, literally items being moved doors and windows being opened and her cat being routinely 'spooked'.

I was invited to visit Christy in her home, she was an enthusiastic client, who loved the healings and the Life in Joy and Balance coaching program I had running for women from 26-42. Having grown up in a difficult family, a confusing Mormon background where both her mother and father had been married multiple times she was wanting to make sense of who she was as a young newly wed, and looking for answers to the questions of where true happiness comes from.

In more than one of our sessions she had mentioned the spirit activities of her home. So it was a natural request, when she was feeling strong in herself, to have her home environment support the shifts she was experiencing in her inner world.

As I walked into her home, I noticed the decorating projects going on in every room. She was definitely doing nesting. I immediately felt the presence of two spirits both female, and there was a very strong attraction they had to a particular window.

These spirits were ghosts. Unlike entities, demons, or trans mortals, these spirits had at one time lived in a human body, and at the end of the life of their body had decided not to move on. Becoming trapped in the physical realm, they didn't realize that they no longer had bodies and continued to live in a house in the neighborhood they had lived in while alive.

These were not malefic ghosts, they were just trying to live their life the best they could given their limited understanding. As I communicated to them, I explained that they were "dead" that they no longer had bodies. This was somewhat unbelievable to them, but with some patience and understanding I revealed to them the evidence that indeed their bodies were gone, and that they were living in a house they no longer (actually never had a right to live in) This is another example of a squatter, and an understandable one.

As they began to comprehend their demise and current circumstances I explained to them that I could now help them move on.

This is the one exception I make interacting with possessions. Human spirits can be confused and not malevolent, but you need to help them understand their circumstances before you take your next step in either assisting them, of moving them out.

I was translating to Christy as I was communicating mind to mind with these two stranded spirits. She was so curious about them and also committed to not harming them.

I offered to assist them in moving to a higher realm, a realm shift that is typically done around the passing of the body (time of death), to a few months proceeding death.

In this case the two ghosts they were surprised and delighted to know that this option was available to them. They would move to a higher plane. And so the process, taking only about ten minutes changed the lives of both Christy and Robbie and the two Human Ghosts.

Did you ever wonder what distinguishes a ghost from a human spirit? A human spirit who does not transition out of the physical realm will hang on to about 40% of the soul that protected the spirit while in a physical body. This Human spirit living on the earthly plane, is a ghost. Because they have some material matter, they will have weight and a very thin physical façade. The ghostly movies, show a shadowing presence are fairly accurate at least in the representation of a ghost. The 40% of soul gives them a translucent visibility.

Human spirit leaving their body, will naturally let go of the soul, allowing them to enter higher realms. A person of faith will have no difficulty with this, as they have a firmly programmed concept of the heavenly realms. Any faith meaning any religious or spiritual path will give an individual this ability.

The Kingdom of Heaven Jesus Christ speaks of is both an attitude, so that heaven can be experienced here on earth and a realm. When helping Christians move to a heavenly realm I naturally call on the assistance of Jesus and Mary and the angels to assist their relocation to the paradise promised in the Bible.

And having helped Buddhists and Hindus in their passage, an equally beautiful healing temple/paradise awaits.

The individual leaving the human body, will carry with them all that they have learned in this lifetime. Once they have rested and worked out their next lifetime, they will need to leave behind much of their information to become a baby spirit and begin anew. Some children hold onto many of their memories from other lives accessing them clearly in their early childhood. This is because they have developed a super brain, outside spirit that they are able to draw on. However access to that brain fades to a large extent by age 5 so that set in a firm understanding of their journey and work in this new life they are now able to grow and develop without the confusing ebb and flow of past life and body memories. Once they have reached a certain stage of development they will again have full access to this super brain and memories.

Why do ghosts/human spirits chose not to leave at the time of or close to the passing of their body? Confusion is a main reason. An abrupt death, like one experienced from an accident can toss a spirit out of body, and not realizing they are not in body they will continue to attempt to live the life or pieces of life they have access to getting stuck for up to 600 years.

Another reason would be that a person is extremely attached to human life, specifically theirs. Sometimes people with mental disorders like narcissism will be so involved with themselves and what they have that they will have no possibility of the next step, or something new.

Ghosts can also be victims of violent rape, murder and drug overdose. The spirit having endured what it should not have gone through can actually become ill and deformed. I have seen a human choose to drop into the existence of a dogs body for a couple lifetimes to heal atrocities, and then return to the human body form in a future life. (I am not saying human spirits animate dog bodies) Dogs, are another creature, unique and different from humans. What I am saying is sometimes when a human spirit is so injured this is one choice they may make. A much better choice is for their loved ones to prayer for them daily or get a miraculous healer involved in assisting them and moving them into a healing temple.

A traumatized human spirit will be placed in a sarcophagus looking resting place in a healing temple, safe quite and protected, where it can heal and restore the light an truth (purity) of life.

Many years ago, shortly after I moved into San Francisco a friend had recommended I see her psychic friend, to give me some insights into my present situation. Although I rarely advise with other psychics, for some reason I thought it was okay to speak to good 'ole Bob. What a bad decision that was.

Bob had somehow been the victim of an alien spirit attack. Everyone of the folks who consulted with Bob for a nine week period got a head full of obnoxious, difficult to clear aliens in their head. Now I would have been Johnny- on- the- spot with my clearing techniques but back then, I was tortured with aliens screaming in my brain for three years.

During that "occupation" I sought out the assistance of a four of spiritual paths. I first went to the Catholics, thinking an exorcism would be the ticket to clearing the beings shouting in my head. They suggested prayer as a way to the restoration of mental health. This may have over time been the solution, but for the moment prayers while connecting me with God, were not producing the results I was seeking.

The second spiritual organization I contacted was a Buddhist teacher. I remember him, he taught out of a office in Noe Valley a section of San Francisco.

“How can I help you?” the American born monk asked. I had already told my story to him on the phone, so I said: “ I have been struggling with 3 loud voices in my head, talking to each other shouting like there is a mega phone in my head and I want you to help me get them out.” His answer: “Lets meditate on this problem together” so I sat by his side and chanted with him Nam yo ho ren gae ho, as the aliens laughed and screamed and it felt like they were riding through my brain like the flying trapeze with the greatest of ease.

When we had completed the full round of chanting he asked me; “how are you now?” “It was a lovely chant except for the loud ruckus in my head.” “That’s all I have to offer you, come prayer and chant with us any time you are always welcome”.

I left discouraged, but determined not to give up on the situation so I went to the Vedanta Center, and center of yogic practice and I has the opportunity for a private appointment with the Swami. He asked me of my time in India and my understandings and said to use my mantras to heal myself. There was no techniques in these three organizations to extract unwanted spirits. The only place left to turn was The Berkley Psychic Institute. They had an answer for me, but it wasn’t what I wanted to hear, however I listened and did what they advised.

What ensued was a 6 week training program followed by another and another and finally an 18 month clairvoyant program, in which subject of removing unwanted spirits was included during weekend retreats. People come to expand their clairvoyance, and then there are folks like me who have reached the end of the road with traditional methods and are “desperate”. So I learned to heal myself and in that process I restored my sanity.

I at the time wanted someone to help me, I wanted to be freed of these horrendous alien entities, but the struggle and knowledge I gained from the years of working on removing them have made me one of the most effective “ghost busters” on the planet.

Who Ya Gonna Call?!!!!

When a person is experiencing schizophrenia they are under siege from entities and occupying forces. Usually, it is a willing agreement between the person with the body and the entities that share the lifetime with them.

Sean is the son of one of my long time friends. He is now in his late 20's and experienced the voices for the first time at age 17. Through the years I had heard the stores of the crazy behaviors of this Irish Immigrant family and the struggles they endured.

You might be curious, once I had developed the technique of clearing entities and beings why I wouldn't clear him. The answer is one of choice. His choice. Most individuals with this challenges will report to you that they like the entities, they have become like their friends. To clear them of these entities without permission, causes a change in their growth and development, taking away an opportunity to experience an life of research around mental illness and shared physical body with others. This is a valid like and can give the human, a great deal of information.

To look at this situation may for a healer be distressing to leave unaddressed, once you've developed the skill to move entities and beings out you may be tempted to resolve the occupation. I advise you not to. This may bring his problems and even his spiritual growth agreements onto your head to fulfill. Some people say this is taking on someone else's karma. You have no right to do this and should not proceed.

I don't like spiders and snakes but that at what it takes to love you, whoooooo!

In the 80's in the Arizona desert a strange phenomenon dropped down on planet earth. There was a 11 week period when the sky was alight like aurora borealis. This actually was the descending of some visitors, much less then an entity, but in the shape of spiders and snakes. They have a ghostly appearance and hide out often I find them in peoples spins and necks these are pretty simple to remove, and are similar to an insect, without much intelligence, somewhat parasitical in nature.

I mentioned my cockroach philosophy, these are definitely in the category of a cockroach and can be removed without worry. These creatures are not from our realm and like locust dropped in on us to feed off our energy, if you need to use a lot of energy drinks to keep you going, these spiders and snakes may be a cause for your fatigue.

I have mentioned many unwanted creatures of other realms and have given some stories to help you understand how they affect folks. Keep in mind there are many beings, for example angelic beings, spirit helpers, and legions of holy bings who only want good for humanity. Since we are in a discussion about health, these negative spirits who can have a tremendously adverse affect to the point of spiritual parasitical death. Western medicine has no answers or comprehension of these beings and so there are no treatments to remove this cause of illness. In the next section you will get the step by step protocols for removing spiritual parasites from the body and from your home.

The Processes For Removal of Unwanted Spirit Activity

Demons

It is my sincere wish that you never encounter these either in yourself or in someone you love or care for. There are numerous stories of Jesus clearing Demons from people. As he was clearing them, they may have even force the person they were occupying to speak blasphemy to Jesus. I like Jesus can Identify who is speaking.

In Biblical stories we hear of demons being transferred into the bodies of a heard of pigs, who run over the cliff and die. This is not a solution in our age, as the demons would be free again to harm another person, once they were released from the pigs ant death.

The technique I teach you will remove their intelligence permanently. This is a complete 'brain' wipe. So the demon becomes a thing and once you have completed the process is now just a kind of floating energy with no information to harm a being.

I do not recommend you take this on as a vocation, do just what you need to clear and keep yourself and loved ones, clients clear. To take on being a spiritual warrior and battling evil and entities, will get you bus loads of these creatures. Swarming you. SO do not battle. Just follow the procedures below in neutrality with the intention and focus of a brain surgeon.

If you have a choice to get additional help removing a demonic spirit I recommend you welcome it.

❖ Demonic Obliteration Process

- ♦ Ground the person who is being harmed by the demon to the center of the earth and from the crown chakra hook them up to the Supreme Being.
- ♦ Identify the demon. It will be black in color, and will have a significant amount of power. It is important that once you identify the demon, that you move into action quickly as they will not expect it and this gives you a great advantage, the element of surprise.
- ♦ Tie the demon down to the center of the earth and with the same cable attach the cord to the Supreme Being.

The demon will now be locked in place and unable to move.

I use the rose as the symbol of purity and I use this symbol for step one of the process, however it is not about the rose, you could use the image of an athletic shoe or a large bolder, it doesn't matter what you use, just once you start be consistent and use the same thing.

- ♦ Throw the rose on top the image of the locked down demon.
I use my right hand, and I may even as I project my hand forward thrusting the rose onto the demon say out loud 'rose'.
- ♦ With my left hand I project a cartoonish bomb onto the rose and blow up the rose, saying out loud "bomb".
- ♦ You will do this process for possibly 30 minutes or more. I suggest you stop to check on your progress.

❖ How to check your progress

- ♦ Momentarily stop the rose bomb momentum and using your muscle testing as what percentage of the demon has been removed.

Start the muscle testing at 10% going up to 20% on so forth. If it is more then ten and less then 20% then start from then and count up, 11, 12, 13. Etc. till you discover where you are in the removal process. It helps to see that you are making progress and you will have courage and fortitude to continue.

❖ Very Important

You can't stop in the middle, so forge ahead until the demon is completely testing gone. A few minutes to run to the bathroom or get a drink of water is okay, but you can't take a real break, not nor then 10 minutes. This is serious stuff and you are doing a delicate procedure, one that will dramatically improve the life of the one being help. Take this seriously, just like a brain surgeon, they would not take a supper break while in the middle of an important surgery, they will stick with it til the procedure is done.

- ♦ check is if the DNA has a program for spiritual parasites or mental illness. If yes go to the DNA Obliteration process and remove these harmful programs. Find the DNA Obliteration Process on page xxx
- ♦ All demonic clearings must include a spiritual timeline clearing. This will clear off the past timeline, but more importantly will clear off all the time bombs set to go off in the persons future that would allow for a return of different demonic beings. Find the spiritual time line

❖ Follow up After Demonic Obliteration

Spiritual therapy to insure a new pattern is established.

Following the removal, I recommend the person does the

In the case of multiple demons

Sometimes when there is one there are two or three. I suggest you lock them all done with the same cable to the center of the earth. You can imagine you have thrown a fishing net over them and then send a cable up to the supreme being tying them into position.

What I have found with multiple demons is that it takes the time for three removals, however you have safely locked them in position so they are not attacking you or causing pain to the person they are being removed from. In other words your process will be three times as long, but you and the individual will be safe and unharmed during the process.

When you are checking progress you will also ask how many are left, and what percentage has cleared away. What I have observed is with demons, you clear one completely before the next one starts clearing. They don't clear away simultaneously. One by One. Your quiet mantra is 'slow and steady wins the race.'

❖ Evil Spirits Obliteration Process

- ♦ Ground the person who is being harmed by the evil spirit to the center of the earth and from the crown chakra hook them up to the Supreme Being.
- ♦ Identify the evil spirits. They come in bunches and will appear black in color, and will have a significantly less power than a demon yet the force of evil has drive. It is important that once you identify the evil spirits and number them, that you move into action quickly as they will not expect it and this gives you a great advantage, the element of surprise.
- ♦ Fasten the group of evil spirits down to the center of the earth and with the same shackle attach the lead to the supreme being. The evil spirits will now be locked in place and unable to move.
- ♦ Throw a rose on top the image of the locked down evil spirits.
I use my right hand, and I may even as I project my hand forward thrusting the rose onto the evil spirits say out loud 'rose'.

- ♦ With my left hand I project a cartoonish bomb onto the rose and blow up the rose, say out loud “bomb’.
- ♦ Do this process for possibly 5 minutes or more. I suggest you stop to check on your progress.

❖ How to check your progress

- ♦ Momentarily stop the rose bomb momentum and using your muscle testing as what percentage of the evil spirits have been removed.

Start the muscle testing at 10% going up to 20% on so forth. If it is more then ten and less then 20% then start from then and count up, 11, 12, 13. Etc. till you discover where you are in the removal process. It helps to see that you are making progress and you will have courage and fortitude to continue.

❖ Trans mortals Obliteration Process

- ♦ Ground the person who is being harmed by the trans mortal spirits to the center of the earth and from the crown chakra hook them up to the Supreme Being.

- ♦ Identify the trans mortals. The few times I encountered them there were 3 or 4 together. Assume they have come with others and look carefully for them . will feel gigantic, and appear grey in color, and will have a significantly more power then anything else on the astral so this is not a job for the easily frightened. It is important that once you identify the tans mortals and number them, that you move into action quickly as they will not expect it and this gives you a great advantage, the element of surprise.
- ♦ Fasten each trans mortal down individually immediately upon identifying them until they are all locked down to the center of the earth and with binding attach the lead to the supreme being. The trans mortals will now be locked in place and unable to move.
- ♦ Throw a rose on top the image of the locked down trans mortal. I use my right hand, and I may even as I project my hand forward thrusting the rose onto the evil spirits say out loud 'rose'.
- ♦ With my left hand I project a cartoonish bomb onto the rose and blow up the rose, say out loud "bomb'.
- ♦ Repeat the last two steps till each of them is removed entirely one by one
- ♦ Do this process for possibly 2 hours or more. I suggest you stop to check on your progress.

- ♦ Momentarily stop the rose bomb momentum and using your muscle testing as what percentage of the trans mortal has been removed.

Start the muscle testing at 10% going up to 20% on so forth. If it is more then ten and less then 20% then start from then and count up, 11, 12, 13. Etc. till you discover where you are in the removal process. It helps to see that you are making progress and you will have courage and fortitude to continue.

❖ Very Important complete the process with trans mortals you are thrusting them back into their realm permanently. They are a type of alien, and I look at their behavior as resembling teenage drunken mischief. They have jumped realms and are hanging out causing problems for another type of being (a Human) and they think it's funny. They are neither collecting data/research or being a parasite, they are jokesters. Move them out, and restore peace to the poor unfortunate person who got in the way of their landing strip.

- ♦ All trans mortal clearings must include a spiritual timeline clearing. This will clear off the past timeline, but more importantly will clear off all the time bombs set to go off in the persons future that would allow for a return of different evil beings. Find the spiritual time line process on page xxx
- ♦ All trans mortal clearing must also include a search of the physical body for any anchors, you might read them as eggs, that the trans mortals can jump into in the future. They can leave behind identification, a sort of GPS navigation inside the human, so after they are entirely cleared, clear in the same way you did the above obliteration process. Repeat the steps for each egg/anchor you find till it is entirely gone.

❖ Entity Obliteration Process

- ♦ Ground the person who is being infested by the entities to the center of the earth and from the crown chakra hook them up to the Supreme Being.
- ♦ Identify the circumstances of the infestation, how many entities and what colors. They come in bunches and will appear in all primary colors and do not appear black. The power they process is much like an ant crawling up the inside of your pant leg. Significantly annoying at times but on their own aren't going to do much. They are definitely parasitical in nature. They have virtually no power and are easily removed if you follow the steps exactly. Just like an ant if you don't lock them down right away, they can move all over and be extremely annoying. Move into action quickly as they will not expect it and this gives you a great advantage, the element of surprise.
- ♦ Fasten the group of entities down to the center of the earth and with the same shackle attach the lead to the supreme being. The entities will now be locked in place and unable to move.
- ♦ Throw a rose on top the image of the locked down entities.
I use my right hand, and I may even as I project my hand forward thrusting the rose onto the evil spirits say out loud 'rose'.

- ♦ With my left hand I project a cartoonish bomb onto the rose and blow up the rose, say out loud “bomb’.
- ♦ Do this process for possibly 3 minutes or more. I suggest you stop to check on your progress after 3 minutes.

Ghosts

When we look at removing ghosts we are not looking at an inhabitation of the ghost in a person, but rather a ghost squatting in a home or other physical location.

Special Ghost Transition

Sometimes these human spirits stuck on the earthly plan without a body, with a gentle conversation letting them no they are no longer alive and that they can move to a healing temple will be enough to move them on their way. These are not malevolent beings, you speak to them as a confused or trouble spirit, but there is no aggression or assertive 'posturing'. The idea is to have them feel safe so they can make a good choice to leave.

If they are willing, (I recommend you speak to them for a short time, give it a couple minutes, as an authority you are no longer alive I can help you move on the a healing temple, would you like that)

Do not however get into a long conversation with them. Do not think their stories are interesting, and get tricked into buying into their world and reasons for being stuck. Just tell them who you are that they are 'dead', don't have a physical body any longer and you can help them move into a physical healing temple.

If the answer is Yes

Find out what they're faith at birth was if you can.

If you aren't real adept at clairsaudience, use muscle testing.

And finally make your best guess. They will ultimately get to the right place even if you start them somewhere as a starter healing temple.

If they are Christian, identify who you will call in to assist you, Christ or Mary.

Ask for Mary (for example) to come and help you with the process

Mary this is so and so, they would like to join you in a healing temple and need assistance.

Typically Mary will have her initiates, they look like nuns in black robes, help her.

She may or may not hug the person/ghost typically not, she hugs the faithful who have just passed over and are moving into her tutelage.

The two initiates will take the person/ghost by the upper arms and lift them up. In this process the Soul Matter is left behind, and the spirit is now more ready to take their place in the lower heavenly realms.

Mary will tell you if they are in bad shape, but the prognosis is to go to a resting state for a prolonged period, to restore the spirit to a cleaner, purer state. I think this might have been the idea of purgatory, however I know this is not a place of suffering and penance it is a place of restoration.

You may actually feel them lifted up and out and in moments they will be gone from the physical plan.

After I had done many of these healings, Mary, Mother of Jesus, began to thank me at the end of the healings. I was so touched when this started, and have always been willing to help a lost spirit find their way back to the 'Kingdom of Heaven' whatever that is for them.

For Buddhist I call in Kuan Yin or Buddha, for Jews I call in Abraham and Sara, you can look to a guide or Avatar of the spiritual system they belonged to and get them moved up and on.

If on the other hand the ghost is malevolent you must now prepare to do an Obliteration process without hesitation.

❖ Malevolent Ghost Obliteration Process

- ♦ Ground yourself to the center of the earth
- ♦ Ground the Ghost to the center of the earth and hook the top of their head up with a cord to the Supreme Being. The ghost will now be locked in place and unable to move.
- ♦ Throw the rose on top of the locked down ghost.
I use my right hand, and I may even as I project my hand forward thrusting the rose onto the ghost say out loud 'rose'.
- ♦ With my left hand I project a cartoonish bomb onto the rose and blow up the rose, saying out loud "bomb".
- ♦ You will do this process for possibly 7 minutes or more. I suggest you stop to check on your progress.

- ♦ Momentarily stop the rose bomb momentum and using your muscle testing as what percentage of the ghost has been removed. Keep in mind you can not "kill" this human spirit, what you are doing is disappearing all of their intelligence so they will no longer be harmful, or a nuisance to people who are living in a body on earth. They will be starting at ground zero, with no information, and beginning the long journey of spiritual development again, hopefully this time they will do better, you are essentially whipping their slate clean.

Start the muscle testing at 10% going up to 20% on so forth. If it is more then ten and less then 20% then start from then and count up, 11, 12, 13. Etc. till you discover where you are in the removal process. It helps to see that you are making progress and you will have courage and fortitude to continue.

❖ Very Important

Do not stop in the middle. Forge ahead until the ghost is completely testing gone.

When I a new at this and clearing myself, I once ended up with an evil spirit hanging out the right neo cortex. It had positioned it self literally in my brain, and try as I may it had gotten a jump on me and locked itself in there. I did not like the idea of a spirit hanging out the top of my head, so I did rose bombs in my head for a good 5 minutes, and I totally cleared it...and some of my own intelligence. It was a good experiment it took about a week for my intelligence to completely returned, so I recommend locking these spirits and demons down if at all possible away from your brain and body.

As I mentioned earlier in this chapter, this is not part of the human blueprint, yet without addressing how to remove and clear these unwanted visitors it is possible that the individual would not ever fully heal.

The experience of having demons evil spirits entities spiders and snakes in your body is a spiritual illness. When going through the protocols asking is this a spiritual illness, now you will have a way to address this unfortunate and all too common situation.

I am aware that entities will get into technology and Wi-Fi and mess things up. You can follow the exact same procedures laid out above to remove troublesome spirits from your computer.

The journey of a human spirit in body is an amazing and challenging journey with many ups and downs. If you have had the unfortunate experience of having a demon or evil spirit occupy your body you have definitely experienced a tough time. I ask you to look at what you were able to learn for yourself from the experience.

- ♦ How did you become wiser?
- ♦ How did you become more compassionate and kind to others who are suffering?
- ♦ What did you learn about the serenity of a quiet body versus the noise of entities or aliens in your head?
- ♦ How will you care for yourself differently?
- ♦ What brought the experience to you?

You could ask yourself many more questions to help you synthesize your learning. And you can then store your learning up in the akashic records or keep it in your present time mental body. By approaching this challenge as a learning experience, when you are completely on the other side you can wrap it up in a box of learning, and it will not define you or have you feel ashamed or embarrassed that you went through that journey, nor will you have to write that challenge on yourself, it will just be history. You will continue to be very sane, competent and capable, and go on to live a life of learning, joy and exploration!
