

Introduction

Welcome

What we'll cover in the call today

Starting with Mindset

Doubt

You may doubt your abilities and cause your self to be in effective moving forward. Accessing the Quantum field and successfully moving forward is a process of truth and knowing. If you have a problem with doubting the process or doubting your ability to be effective ~ understand there is a solution for this issue. Research the number of challenges in your field of perception and your DNA. I guarantee you if have doubt there will definitely be blocks in both these places.

Doubt can show up projected on others or

A significant reason for doubt comes from group mind. We call group mind a meme or a miasm. At some point in your long life (perhaps in an earlier incarnation) you were in a group who was threatened or persecuted for having skill and knowledge. To 'get' safe you might have aligned yourself with a large group of people to 'disagree with the truth of the body' and adapt a belief that the body cannot regenerate.

The German people during the time of Hitler agreed to a miasm ~

Unsafe Past

If you have experienced this issue ~ know you are not alone, it is a prominent block for many people. At the time when this was originally happening (group mind forming) understand those individuals who maintained the knowledge and skill of the human blueprint and its regenerative abilities were ostracized at the very least and sometimes much worse. To have this knowledge meant you competed with the authority of the leaders of the church and state. People were condemned as demonic, witches or Satan followers.

The Cather's mystic followers of Jesus know in intimate circles as the church of love processed great powers of healing and manifestation. For not agreeing with group mind and the powers or the Roman Catholic church they were rounded up, locked in a building and torched.

At some point long ago this knowledge was dangerous to have only because of the control energy broadcast by the few who held leadership roles. In this new era it is safe to have the knowledge. We have left the patriarchal age ~ age of male dominated authority and have moved into the age of equality and androgyny so we now can own our creator god/goddess wisdom without threat of reprisal or death.

I address the reason why it is in the group of blocks currently existing in perception so you get a glimpse as to the influences on you regardless or your new way of thinking and current life circumstances. There is still a strong group control 'mindset' in 2014 needing to be cleaned up.

Western Medicine Mind block

Have you ever wondered about the rise of western medicine and the power of group of mind around the doctors being all-authoritative ~ despite the fact that they only offer surgery and pills a majority of the time in response to illness and conditions. Both solutions present harmful side effects and far reaching dangers to your overall wellbeing. Western medicine has profound negative impact on self healing by propagating the denial of the magnificent human design and it's ability to regenerate. Pondering this odd situation allows a new awareness ~ you can see group mind progresses from incarnation to incarnation and the effect and perception is profound. The solution is for you to clear perception of these issues and set your self apart from the controls of western medicine dominant group mind.

The body is designed to regenerate ~ to remain free of spiritual parasites and to be powerful beyond measure.

Clear perception is step one ~ DNA clearing and additional clearings in others parts of the human blueprint support deeper cleanouts as you progress in your mastery. For now, you know that you have the power within to free yourself of all illness: mental, psychiatric, spiritual parasites and physical illness. The power is within you.

Protect

So many people ask how can I protect myself? Let's look at the word protect. Protect means you're in a battle and there's something to be afraid of or something can takeover you. Although having the mindset you need protection isn't in itself a bad thing the element of fear is.

Understand that there is no battle. All you have now in your current life you brought to yourself ~ willingly or unwillingly ~ knowingly or unaware to help you learn and grow and master your life. If you approach your process as an experiment or a research project you will have tremendous traction removing that which no longer serves you.

If however you approach the project of clearing spiritual parasites as a battle you will discover that there are endless challenges that continue to arise.

Neutrality, Knowing and Imperfection

The mindset of neutrality is so important for your process. Both neutrality and knowing that you create your world and have the power to rise above all obstacles are vital to effectively making change in your space.

You must also know that it is okay to not be perfect that it is fine to be on a journey. There is no getting 'there'. You are in a process of living life. To choose to live your life in balance, in joy and in celebration each and every day.

The process of removing spiritual parasites and their effects in your life may take hours, days, weeks years or a lifetime. It really doesn't matter how quickly things progress ~ what matters is that you are on a path to awakening to your true nature which is powerful beyond measure.

If you got from this training that you were a creator goddess or creator god on the planet and you held to that truth understanding that you are the sovereign authority in your space I would be thrilled!

Authority

Know that you need not relinquish your power to any being outside you just because they appear and give themselves the facade of a 'spirit guide'. You will be moving towards your own enlightenment. Angels and spirits around us do not necessarily have more information or power than we do. A common mistake people make all the time is that they relinquish their power to spirit guides or so-called spirit guides thus creating a place for these spirits to connect into their body and experience a human incarnation without having to go through the hard work of living in a body. This is often the main reason spirit guides are attracted to us. They have not mastered getting a physical body or they have had enough difficulties in body and choose not to incarnate. Even so, they desire to grow in the physical arena ~ so by creating agreements with spirits who have bodies (in other words a person like you) they share in your journey. This may be an enjoyable experience for you or it may present many challenges.

I for myself have claimed authority in my space and have a legion of gold angelic supporters. They assist me when directed in my beautiful journey and they are in agreement that am the authority in my space.

They support me and I can direct them just like people who would be working for me or like apprentices or students. I can direct them where I would like them to help me. This is not surrendering my authority it is claiming my full authority. You may have loving relationships with spirits around you and can continue to interact with these beings. Understand that you are the authority unless you relinquish your authority to someone or some being. As with everything if you find yourself challenged to take back your authority you may need to clear problems in perception and DNA that have you subservient to others.

Now we spoke of those we might want to work with, let's touch on those who we don't want around us or in our body.

Stop the Invasion

New Spiritual Parasites Coming in

In my studies I have noticed that there are factors that will allow spiritual parasites to come in more rapidly

- Sugar and eating a lot of sugar
- Alcohol
- Prescription drugs
- Pain medication
- Recreational drugs
- Bars and clubs will also leave you susceptible to the bar fly
- Illness especially entities come into areas that are infected

- Viruses
- Fungal infections
- Chemical imbalances especially for women we see terrible spiritual parasite issues with
- Severe PMS
- Severe menopause
- Body chemistry out of whack
- Mental illness
- Schizophrenia
- Panic
- Obsessive compulsive
- Panic
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Lack of good sleep consistently
- DNA programs
- Family habits and behaviors
- Being unclean ~ an individual who goes many days without washing

Identify what is me and what is not me

Spiritual parasites can really take root. It is important in each situation to be able to understand what is you and what is not you. We often make the mistake of claiming the spiritual parasite and the symptoms as this is me.

For example someone says: 'I have a piercing headache'. If you had no headache 10 minutes ago and you now have a piercing headache it is a spiritual parasite. To say the words: 'I have a headache' claims it and the cause of it as yours.

The antidote for this is to use the mantra: 'this is not me'. Using these words for 5 minutes will be extremely helpful in clearing the headache. 'I feel panic' is another example of someone claiming perhaps an evil spirit or demon in their nervous system or heart.

Understand that when panic comes over you rapidly that it is not a mechanism of a healthy body~ it is a spiritual parasite. When you begin to see how many things you have claimed as your own you can take back your authority and you can rid on your body of all the spiritual parasites that you have in an unconscious way given authority or permission to be in your space. One more time so it is very, very clear: by saying I have a whatever need to be removed they have had permission even if you say you don't have permission anymore you're still going to have to clear them from you.

Part 2

Begin here:

Clear perception of all the issues around

- Mental Illness
- Emotional Illness
- Psychic ~ Spiritual Illness
- Psychiatric issues

There will be millions of these blocks in perception if spiritual parasites have been a problem.

Clear DNA

- Mental Illness
- Emotional Illness
- Psychic ~ Spiritual Illness
- Psychiatric issues

Clear your emotional body

- Mental Illness
- Emotional Illness
- Psychic ~ Spiritual Illness
- Psychiatric issues

Mental body

- Mental Illness
- Emotional Illness
- Psychic ~ Spiritual Illness
- Psychiatric issues

All aspects of the Human Blueprint:

Essence, Matter, Energy, Realms ~Genesis, Embodiment, Quantum, Amplification

- Mental Illness
- Emotional Illness
- Psychic ~ Spiritual Illness
- Psychiatric issues

With auditory spiritual parasites

They may use seeds, cords, anchors, future locks, wormholes and other mechanisms to keep themselves locked into your auditory processing center ~ you may also find this with other spiritual parasites.

Can a Person In a Body Be a Spiritual Parasite in MINE???

More than just an energy vampire ~ the scoop on invaders who have their own body

Individuals who have bodies can and are spiritual parasites. In this section we will learn how to identify them and what to do to remove them and their energy and free from the entanglements.

Okay this is a fun and a little intense section because before we get free from others let's take a look at what we are up to and if we have energy in other people we could pull back and help them feel better.

One of the things that might happen is that you might actually be read as a spiritual parasite to someone else possibly someone close to you. Whether it a family member or a close friend you may be occupying parts of their body or they may be occupying parts of your body.

This section we will cover how to identify and remove yourself from others and how to remove others from yourself.

An excellent tool that has much of this training in it is the karma clearing meditation which is on the website. If you'd like to actually follow that as a guide it is incredibly helpful.

Identifying individuals who are spiritual parasites in you

1. You will have strong feelings about these people or they about you
2. You may never lose your temper with others but this person you are on a short fuse or vice versa you are puzzled why they have no time for you or are easily angered
3. You may even feel hysterical about these people when you think of them or they always seem to move into hysteria quickly around you
4. You want to push them away (unfortunately women sometimes do this to their men without realizing it)
5. Being treated to familiar, without respect or cherishing being overlooked

Putting energy in peoples bodies is pretty normal and unpleasant for the other person at first it can go unnoticed or feel familiar and then over time you may notice that you're being overlooked or treated without respect or with disregard. If you are putting your energy in them so they're filling you up with so much of their your energy or vice versa in both cases they no longer see you as an individuated individual.

Either they see that they are an extension of you or more likely that you are simply a part of themselves .

The most important thing to learn about this is when you're in a close relationship with someone you must look at cleaning up your energy from them.
You become spiritual polite.

The reward

When you master this people will be feeling comfortable around you.

Now that you have this knowledge think back has their been a time someone pulled away and you didn't know why? It is the number one reason for relationships ending without you knowing why.
