

Father, Son. Let's just take a deep breath here. Just get grounded and settled.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we call upon your glorious, miraculous name, and we ask for your presence in this session.

We thank you so much for the constant love and attention that you shower us with. We thank you for Lord Jesus, who walks with us and hears the cry of our heart.

We thank you for the good and the wonderful, and we thank you for the difficult and the challenging. We thank you for showing us what's possible, both in your miraculous place and what's possible in what evil can do, how evil can occupy the body and hurt the body.

And then we thank you so much for empowering us with tools to end the reign of evil.

We seek to do your will. We seek to follow your ways. We seek to align with you.

We thank you for giving us Holy Spirit, the Spirit that speaks to our heart.

We thank you for calming our nervous system. We thank you for calming any disturbances or stress in our heart. We thank you for giving us the resources to deal with whatever events are presenting themselves.

We thank you for beautiful friendships and loving support. We thank you for those moments of loneliness, and we thank you for those moments of sheer delight and connection.

God, we are seeking today to remove the harmful entitlements that have overridden our intentions and taken us away from the full and beautiful life that we had intended for ourselves.

We thank you for helping us to not only remove the entitlements, but to then replace and bring back in our authority, our ownership, our occupancy, and any other way that something has disrupted or disturbed, the entitlement has disturbed our energetic body, our physical body, our field.

We are thankful that even if we don't know all the words to say, that you can point out to us, as we're pumping and clearing, that you can show us the way.

God, you are so amazing.

And we read and hear and see and understand that miracles happen every day. And comical miracles happen. Donkeys talking seem almost unbelievable. Healing leprosy, people being raised from the dead.

There are so many examples of your wondrous works. There are also so many examples of your signs and your wonders, and also your retribution and the ultimate end to those who would commit to being evil and harmful.

And we thank you for taking that burden for us, not leaving that with us to figure it all out about who and what needs retribution, that if we turn over those who have wronged us, we turn that over to you.

Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And then lead us not into temptation and deliver us, deliver us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom here, the power and the glory. And we know that you will make right that which needs to be made right.

And that our heart, our heart can be made right instantly with the forgiveness. And if retribution and some other end need to come, it's not our responsibility. It's, we turn it over to you so that our hearts can be right with you, that we can be aligned with you.

And we thank you for giving us all the assignments, all the work assignments, the restoration of angels and your glorious kingdom, and the incineration of evil.

God, we walk with you. We seek your will. We seek your holy ways.

We thank you again for the angels who minister to us, Lord Jesus and Holy Spirit, who speak to our heart and to our thoughts and bring us into a place of understanding, of knowledge, of wisdom, and of peace.

And of that, today, we seek for a joyous peace, a peace that passes all understanding as we remove that which is not us and claim fully our energetic and physical space as a space of joy and unending peace.

Thank you, God.

We join with the holies in heaven, the 24 holies seated on their thrones with golden crowns and scepters, who have now thrown themselves onto the ground, face forward, singing:

"Holy, holy, holy Lord God Most High. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest."

Amen.
