

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, thank you for bringing us together, and thank you for this incredible topic. God, if there's any overrides on heart, if there's anything pushing the heart, making the heart weak or making it respond differently than a healthy heart would respond, if there's anything that's making the personality or ego of the person weakened because of whatever the override is or the parasitical issue is, we're asking that that be removed, that you remove it for us with your loving hand, your hand of mercy, and also support us in the clearings on our intentions to remove any parasitical or override that's really altering who we are, altering how we feel about ourselves, altering how capable we are, perhaps causing a sense of anxiety, a sense of downheartedness, a sense of being less than capable, being fragile or weak, not being able to move strongly, efficiently forward.

So, God, we ask that you put your loving hand on all of our hearts, on each one of our hearts, and that you heal our heart. You heal it of the brokenness. You heal it from the emptiness, from the loss, from the frozenness, from the petrifiedness, the feeling that I can't let one more person into my world in an intimate way, that you heal this for us so that we might live in your joy, in your connection, your beautiful community, in a level of peace with others, a level of jubilation around others, a sense of feeling safe, feeling assured that all is well and that what we have coming off of our heart and out into the field around us is a sense of welcoming, capable, competent, strong, and information of this woman can't be taken advantage of. She is wise. She is buoyant and beautiful and bubbly and delightful. And she earns and deserves the respect of others.

And we thank you, God, for giving us that projection out into the world and that inner confidence from totally removing anything that served to break us, to break our heart, to traumatize, to freeze, to override our heart.

We thank you, God, for a successful weekend. We thank you for all of the movements in CPS and the courts and the police and everything that has been shifting and moving. And we just surrender, don't know what's going to go where, what's going to change, what you have us do so that we can learn about the corruption when we're rejected, when we're told no, so that we can continue to break down the evil from all organizations like CPS and the CPS courts throughout the world.

Thank you for the hopefulness, the anticipation, and the life unfolding that we are experiencing. Thank you for this beautiful community.

And thank you also for the special ops people who I think many of them are these participants. We just praise you. We glorify you. We love you with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind. We serve you and we seek and long to serve you all the days of our life. And whether those be many, many days ahead or a few days ahead, we seek in every moment to serve you. And it is written in the Old Testament about the prophets and the leaders who were 80 years old and had retained all their strength. And prior to the flood, those who had lived hundreds of years and had maintained all their strength, we seek to maintain all our strength till the end of our days, whatever that is, whatever you've designed for us. We seek our righteousness. We seek truth. We seek to be your vessel. Please give us each and every expectation you have of us so that we might live in the fulfillment and the satisfaction of the fulfillment of all that you've given us to do. And God, if you were to send perhaps a new fellow into our lives for those who are single, let him be a faithful man. Let him be a generous and kind man. Let him be a thoughtful man. Let us align with your instructions to mate with, to partner with someone of the same tribe. So we seek that God. We seek that kind of alignment. We love you. We love you so much. And we're willing to be single. We're willing to be on our own because you are constantly our steady companion. And we are also willing to be supported in the physical realm by a partnership. So whatever that is, if removing trauma, petrification, and all of this feeling of being broken, the brokenness of the heart is removed, let there be a warm and welcoming place for that right partnership. And let there also be a deep contentment and joy that's infectious, that is spread throughout all the earth and through all the interactions of people we engage with.

Oh, God, we are so grateful to be here at this moment in time and to be making the changes, the transformations, the alterations and being of such profound service to you. We are so honored that you've chosen us and given us this edict to follow your will and your way. Let us be pure. Let us be trustworthy. Let us be faithful in our journey as you are pure, trustworthy, and faithful with us. We glorify and praise your holy name, singing with the holies, holy, holy, holy, Lord God Most High. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna, Lord, Hosanna. Praise you, glorify your magnificence in your glory is beyond measure. And we are in awe of you. We seek you. We seek your holiness. We seek to be holy, holy women of God. Alleluia, alleluia and amen. And so be it. Let it be granted a deep and profound transformation from broken, petrified, frozen, traumatized heart to a heart that knows only good, that knows only God. Alleluia and amen.
