

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we glorify and praise your holy name. We thank you for all the miracles that are coming together. We thank you for bringing us together today to work on the area of language and speech. And we glorify and praise your holy name.

We sing with the angels, "Holy, holy, holy Lord God, Most High. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest."

We call upon the blood of Jesus to wash over our brains and to heal us, to restore us, to make us new. And we claim that promise of being made new in you, Lord Jesus, and the power of your name, Jesus, to remove the demonic, satanic, evil energies that have come against us and have prevented us from fully speaking our truth into the world - our truth, which is your truth, which is God-aligned.

And we thank you for the healing, for your presence, for your love, for your strength, for your mercy, and your countenance. We have gone through a time of sorrow and weeping, and even feeling not in control, feeling out of control, feeling like we are grief-stricken by the dishonor that has been thrown at us.

And we are so grateful, God, that you can, in a moment, restore honor and, just in an instant, shine your countenance upon us. And that all that we've gone through, just like Job, is for good. All that we've gone through and all the suffering we've gone through is for a higher purpose. And we understand and we know. We are so deeply grateful for the opportunity to do the journey, to do the difficult parts, and to do the joyful parts.

And we ask, God, if it be your will, and there be a video in the future that needs to come out, that you help us both with funding, help us with ideas and creativity, and help us to do what is right in your eyes to restore honor to our community, to myself, to my family, to our good name in the academy, and really to just quell the nonsense that has been floating around in the world that is untrue.

We thank you, and we glorify you, and we praise your holy name. We praise you unendingly. We praise you, and we thank you for your eyes upon us, your ears listening to us, your beautiful countenance shining your grace, your mercy, your love upon us.

And we glorify your holy name, and we claim all the promises in Scripture, the hundreds of promises you made us in Scripture. We claim all of them. We claim your redemption. We claim your promise to be restored to heaven. And we claim all of that, all that you promised: to walk with us, to stand with us, to uphold us when we are weak.

We glorify you. We glorify you unendingly. We see the 24 holies in heaven surrounding you on their golden thrones, with their golden crowns and scepters, falling to the floor, praising you and praising you with incredible honor and joy and respect and cherishing. And we join them on the floor with our heads, our crowns down to the floor.

And in that beautiful position, we know that our crown and the Wernicke's area of the brain is just so ready to receive your eyes upon us, on the top of our brain, going in. So we position ourselves in such a way with the holies to receive your blessing in through the brain, in through the mind, in through our thoughts. And we receive that beautiful countenance, that beautiful mercy, beautiful blessing, beautiful healing on our brains.

And once more, God, we glorify your magnificence. We glorify you. We praise you. We thank you. We honor you. We cherish you. We make your name holy. Your name is already holy. We recognize how worthy you are and how faithful you are to us.

Amen.
