

QuantumVibration Reality

The reality of purity has a specific signature vibration.

My life from its very earliest beginnings as I was begotten was purely from God,

Of one substance with the Father .

I was free of contamination.

At that moment I was beautiful, magnificent, precious.

I had brilliance and was without form.

in this Realm I existed as consciousness.

Prime wisdomBlood Muscle Knowing

Knowing implies this information is being delivered to my mental interpretation function.
The information gleaned from my blood and muscle is deciphered through my heart brain.

I experience this knowing in my molecular structure.

I am able to understand truth and lie by my muscles strength or weakness.

Truth wisdom inputTenacious Expressed Human

I am a Tenacious Expressed Human.

This is foundational to who I am as a being.

God gave me this quality so that in whatever form or circumstance I find myself,
I am united with God.

I as celestial consciousness with my temporary earthly experience,
Am strength.

This supports the upward rise of my celestial consciousness.
Being a Tenacious Expressed Human is experienced as a confident momentum.
It is part of God's gift to His chosen and children.

Foundational Pure Awareness

*This is an experience of purity that I am, in the moment, able to receive.
Not so much God actually communicating to me directly, but more experienced as a validation in the moment through my pure original self.
Foundational Pure Awareness is miraculous*

*It is my recognition of original consciousness, when I was part of the God cloud and the great I am.
Foundational awareness of purity is high above commonality.
Built into my foundation I experience God saying this is pure*

*I am aware of an alerting to my molecular structure
Experienced as goosebumps, tingling in the spine, cool or warm waves over the body
When I am fully aware of purity, my molecules are delighted
When I am present to this sensation I recognize and powerfully remember
God is real in this moment*

Holy Heart Awake

When I was most aligned with the magnificence and purity of God,

My Holy Heart Awake existed.

Before creation and my individuation.

In its perfected state it provides me with an experience of great ease.

For me to be awake is to wake up to my experiences, as God would.

Holy Heart Awake is understood as an outer awareness provided by what resonates with God.

I, as God's child chosen experience this God created confirmation.

This serves to help me interpret what is pure, true, holy and just

Original Immortal Brilliance

Original is from the time of no time when all that was, was God.

I am aware of this brilliance In my stillness.

Stillness is when I am communing with God, having no thought.

Original Immortal Brilliance is established for me in the a time of no time,

When all that was, was God unending.

This state is brilliant and beautiful.

Consciousness is part of Original Immortal Brilliance.

It is the state of preciousness I am like a newborn infant to their mommy who is God.

Immortal is the unending life, a life without end

When I am in this state I am precious to God.

My Original Immortal Brilliance is:

Divine, holy, light, vibration, frequency, power, wisdom, strength, joy.

God Created Brilliance

God Consciousness Access

Access to God Consciousness existed as we individuated.

This gift of God Consciousness Access was the very first blessing God bestowed on us, as we individuated.

This access is a privilege given to God's children

And God's chosen are able to receive God Awareness Access

Access to my original power
