Just praising God, thanking God for this transformation, thanking God for being ever present with us. And when we raise our voice and song and praise the Lord, that we are felt, we are seen, we are always felt, we are always seen, that we are uplifted, that our frequency and our vibration becomes more rapid and faster.

We are so deeply grateful, God. We are deeply grateful to be alive with you and to have this opportunity to serve and to be at this time on the planet, in this exact moment where the energies are so dispersed, so off and off-putting. And we know that we're placed here for a purpose and a reason.

And I recognize and I see just like I was put right on the San Andreas Fault when all those big earthquakes were happening in the 90s. And I lived on a cabin right on top of the fault. And I know that you put me there to calm the earth. And I thank you that we are here in this moment to calm the nerves and the hearts and the minds of humanity. We are here to bring hope and restoration. We are here to bring unity and alignment.

We thank you, God, for this opportunity to be and to draw close to you. We thank you for your beautiful eyes, your loving eyes on us, your countenance upon us, your protection and your mercy, you surrounding us, before us, behind us, to the right and left, below us and above us. You envelop us, God, and we feel you. We feel your presence. We feel your love. We feel your consistency, your constancy, your mercy, your faithfulness, your grace.

We are so grateful, God. We are grateful. We are grateful that it's hard in this moment and that we are doing the struggle right along with humanity. And we are seeing where evil has hidden and we are seeking to incinerate evil with your help, with your guiding hand. Help us to be powerful incinerators, clearers of evil. Help us to do the work we were called to do.

Thank you, God. Thank you for this growing community of beautiful and dedicated hearts and minds, souls and bodies. Thank you for bringing the angels to us to support our community. Thank you, God, for always the presence of Jesus, always helping us, the Holy Spirit speaking to us.

Thank you, God. Thank you for the knowledge, the wisdom, the awareness, the good counsel that we receive. Thank you, God.

Glorifying you, praising you, glorifying and praising you. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Amen, amen, amen.
